

DEATH OF REV. E. F. GALLAGHER

Rev. Eugene F. Gallagher, pastor of St. Cecilia's, Toronto, passed away at the parochial residence on Sunday morning, July 14. The attending physicians give it as their opinion that death was due to paralysis of the brain, brought on by a stroke sustained ten days before. After being stricken he recovered sufficiently to make his preparations for death, and devoutly received the last sacraments from the hands of his old friend, the Rev. Father Welch, C. S. B.

Born in the County Donegal, Ireland, sixty-eight years ago, Father Gallagher came to Canada when twenty years of age. He had already made up his mind to enter the sacred ministry, so shortly after his arrival he entered the Sulpician Seminary, Montreal, being ordained there in 1879 by the late Archbishop Lynch.

After his ordination, Father Gallagher held charges at Caledon, Schomberg and Pickering, always distinguishing himself by his fidelity to duty for which he was known throughout his whole life. The late Archbishop O'Connor conceived a high opinion of Father Gallagher's abilities, and ten years ago called him to Toronto, where he was placed in charge of the newly formed St. Cecilia's parish. The beautiful new church, dedicated to the service of God in that parish a year ago, is a monument to his zeal.

He was greatly beloved by the people of St. Cecilia's, who appreciated his humility, his zeal, and his fund of common sense. Though sparing them as much as possible, he never spared himself, and was ever ready at the call of duty to minister to the sick or to those who were in need of his ministrations. The funeral was held from St. Cecilia's Church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Very Rev. Dr. Kidd was the celebrant of the Requiem High Mass, Rev. James Walsh, deacon, Rev. Dr. Tracey, sub-deacon, and Father McGrath, master of ceremonies. Father Oline, of Oshawa, preached the sermon, which we give in full below.

THE SERMON

"And we will not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning those that are asleep that we not sorrowful even as others who have no hope." (1 Thess. 4:12).

We are assembled here this morning to render the last offices of tenderness and devotion to one who has commanded our esteem in life and has retained it in death. The purpose of our presence here this morning is two-fold: We are here to consign the body of our deceased friend to the dust out of which it was framed, and to pray for his departed spirit journeying back to the light of eternal day.

For about two years, since he has been a student in the seminary, Mr. Ayers has attended Catholic missions and was one of several to hear Mr. Benson, the English Jesuit, who was in this country recently. Mr. Ayres has frequently been present at High Mass in the Church of St. Paul the Apostle—Boston Pilot.

DIABETES

Is one of the most cruel maladies of which man is subject, the many complications arising from time to time making life seem almost unbearable. For many diseases, medical, scientific, and physiological knowledge and experience, and the progress of research, has achieved remarkable results, but, up to now, it has been discovered of practical value in the treatment and cure of diabetes, that people have begun to look upon the disease as well-nigh incurable. Even in the medical profession can be found doctors who at the same opinion, regarding sceptically any claim to ameliorate or improve the condition of a diabetic patient. It can however, be proved that "Sanon's Anti-diabetes," the new German Discovery, does lastingly cure all cases of Diabetes.

FISKE O'HARA.—The well-known young Irish tenor, Fiske O'Hara, will produce a new tenor opera play, entitled "The Rose of Killarney" next month. The play is by the well-known author, Edward Poulton, from whose pen came "Little Boy Blue," the English version of "Ermine" and many other successful theatrical productions. It is a story of love in the Green Isle during the latter part of the 18th century, and of rather a higher dramatic form than usual in plays of this class. The action of the play is laid in Wicklow and Killarney. The tour of Mr. O'Hara is an extensive one, reaching from Canada to the Gulf and back to Canadian Northwest.

Fickle Joys
The days are dark, life's garlands gone
Each hour dark graves around me,
And as the flying years pass on,
The wrecks they leave surround me.

The bird that sings on yonder bough
Strikes many a note of sorrow,
Maybe it feels through his thimble nose
It may be dead to-morrow.

And well I know the sunshine there
That glads my heart and home,
Gilds many a loved one's vacant chair,
Mocks many a jyring frown.

Yet why weep o'er joys buried now
They filled their time and place,
And many a beam that lit my brow
Left furrows on my face.

Count all the sorrows woven deep
Mid pleasures gayest hours,
You'll find more reason far to weep
Then laugh, in life like ours.

And many a rock we've passed safe o'er
Where stronger ships have perished,
We've seen the billows rage and roar
O'er hopes and friends we cherished.

THE WESTERN FAIR

From indications at the present time it would appear as though this old and reliable Exhibition would be more popular than ever this year. The management are doing everything possible to make the Exhibition not only attractive to Exhibitors and Visitors, but satisfactory as well. They wish to combine the most attractive features of the Exhibition with all the different phases of amusement and recreation. These will be established on the grounds this year an up-to-date milk machine plant in actual operation. Every farmer in the country should avail himself of the opportunity of seeing this machine. There will also be established on the grounds as an educational feature, a plant showing the latest sanitary methods of caring for and cooling milk. These are only a few of the many features which will make the Exhibition very attractive this year. The amusement part of the Exhibition has been well looked after. There will be a splendid programme for attractions twice daily before the Grand Stand. The Bessie of the Barn Model and cheltenham, the one of the finest brass bands in the world. You can not afford to miss and see the exhibition. It will be filled with good clean shows. Special rates over all railroads commencing September 6th. Low rates for Exhibitors.
