On Thursday, September 9th, a gathering was convened of the teachers, scholars, and friends of the Wesleyan Sabbath School, Fogo.

TEMPERANCE AT SACKVILLE.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING IN LINGLEY HALL.—RE-ORGANIZATION OF THE OLD "PIONEER TOTAL ABSTINENCE SOCIETY."

DEAR NEWS.—About a week ago, there occurred a most disgraceful row in the main street of this place, the participants in which deserve severe punishment.

THOS. PICKARD, Esq., M. P. P., made some remarks, followed by Rev. Jos. Hart, who endorsed the sentiments expressed, and instanced Yarmouth, N.S., as notable for its quietness and the manner in which the magistracy enforce the law.

movement, his own bitter experience giving a power to his desire to see a reform. He decried the idea of any Christian community allowing a license law to exist, and declared that all liquor sellers are unprincipled.

Prof. Allison followed. We cannot hope, he said, for a solid, substantial reform while human appetites and thirst for liquor are continually being by this traffic pampered.

The constitution was then signed by seventy persons including a number of ladies, and the following officers elected:—Prof. Inch as President; Messrs. Pickard and Meahan, Vice-presidents; Mr. Bell, Secretary, and Mr. Thomson Trueman as Treasurer.

It was agreed that these officers form an Executive Committee, and the meetings be held monthly in three districts of the village.
