In MAIL AND EMPIRE, Katherine Hale tes: "Miss Weaver has evidently deep"

In MAIL AND EMPIRE, Katherine Hale writes: "Miss Weaver has evidently deeply loved and studied Quebec, and her little volume is one that must charm and delight, not only the traveller who has been, or will go, to Quebec, but the student of history who needs to look back through all the centuries to find his Quebec of to-day. I do not remember having read before such brief, spiritual and suggestive sk-tiches as those of Samuel de Champlain, the founder of Quebec, and Montcalm, its brave defender, while nowhere has the famous battle of the Plains of Abraham been more vividly set forth. A word must be said for the illustratrations, which greatly enhance the value of "Old Quebec."

Embellished with over 100 original Illustrations, most of them from pen-and-ink drawings by Miss Annie E. Weaver. Bound in dark blue and gold, with the coat-of-arms of Quebec and an etching of Champlain's ship in a panel of fleur-de-lys.
