

and twenty one years of age, Apprentices and hired Servants shall work three days, and common laborers & journeymen mechanics four day's.

one years of age, Apprentices and hired Servants shall be obliged to work three days and no more, common Laborers and Journeymen Mechanics four days and no more—PROVIDED ALSO, That upon application to two of His MAJESTY'S Justices of the Peace in the county, the said Justices shall and may in their discretion lessen the number of days labor to be performed by any aged or indigent Persons.

Commissioners by the first day of April in every year to make out lists of the Inhabitants in each parish with the number of days they are to work to be publicly advertised

Commissioners to direct the Surveyors at what places the work shall be

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners in each town or parish for the time being shall by the first day of April in each and every year make out a list of the Inhabitants in such town or parish with the number of days work to be performed by each, and shall advertise the same at the most public place in such town or parish, and shall also furnish the Surveyor in their respective districts with a list of such Inhabitants and the number of days work so to be done by each, and at the same time shall direct the said Surveyors at what places the work shall be done; which work shall be done by such Inhabitants under the direction of such Surveyors. And it shall further be the duty of the said Commissioners to add to their list the names of such persons as may come into their respective Parishes to reside after the first day of April unless they produce a certificate of their having performed their proportions of labor in some other town or parish.

Inhabitants may, in lieu of such labor, pay each two shillings and sixpence per day on or before the first day of June in every year, or three shillings per day after that time.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Inhabitants in such list prefer paying money to doing such labor, it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners to take and receive from such Inhabitants the sum of two shillings and six pence per day for each day's labor required to be done by them, provided the same is paid into the hands of the Commissioners on or before the first day of June in every year, and if such money is not paid until after that time they shall be obliged to pay three shillings per day or perform such labor. And the monies which may be paid in lieu of such labor, as well as forfeitures which may be received by virtue of this act, shall be laid out under the direction of such Commissioners on such roads, streets, and bridges, between the first day of May and the first day of November in every year and accounted for by them to the Justices at their first General Sessions in every year.

Surveyors to summon the Inhabitants, giving six days notice in the fittest time to labor, between the first

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Surveyors of Highways in their respective districts shall be and are hereby empowered in the fittest and most seasonable time between the first day of May and the first day of November yearly to summon the
