There was recently haled into an Alabama court a little Irishman to whom the thing was a new experience.
 He was, however, unabashed, and wore an air of a man determined not to "get the worst of it."

"Prisoner at the bar," called out the clerk, "do you wish to challenge any of the jury?"

Where upon the Celt looked the men in the box over carefully and with a skilled eye.

"Well I tell ye," he finally replied,

Rev. Mr. Ferguson and Mrs. Ferguson received an unexpected visit from the members of Zion church on Saturday night. The following address was read by Mrs. Atchison, President of the Ladies' Aid, on behalf of the church;

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson:

We, the people of Zion, feel that we cannot let this, the eve of your departure, pass without in some way acknowledging your untiring devotion to us.
 You have not only labored amongst us for our spiritual good, but you have worked most earnestly for the benefit of our church, and you, Mrs. Ferguson, have given your time and labor, and helped us to attain that which we would never have undertaken, but for you. You entered into the work so heartily, and with such a cheerful spirit, that it seemed to make the work a real pleasure for the rest of us. We ask you to accept this purse, not for the amount it contains, but as a slight token of our appreciation of what you have done for us, and we feel thankful that the distance is not so great, but we may hope to see you again from time to time.

Signed on behalf of the Ladies' Aid.
 Mrs. Wm. Atchison, Pres.
 Mrs. T. Wilson, Treas.

After refreshments had been served an hour or two was spent in a pleasant chat. The party broke up about half past eleven o'clock with prayer by the pastor.—Hepworth Progress.

 of the Mildmay Methodist Church, and
