Wedding Bells.

COWHIG—818K.

A very pretty wedding took place at the R. C. church, Grand Ave., N. B., on August the 3rd inst., when Rev. S. J. Doucet, P. P., united in marriage Miss Susan Cowhig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Slak, of Pocksville, to William J. Cowhig, of the same place. The bride was prettily gowned in white with white picture hat, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Lillian D. Slak, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and also wore white, while William J. Cowhig supported the groom. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride where a sumptuous bridal dinner was partaken of by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The bride wore the richest of many beautiful presents, including a solid silver pickle stand from Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Slak, of Truro, N. B., brother and sister-in-law of the bride. After spending the afternoon in music and dancing they left amid good wishes for the home of the groom, where they will in future reside.

MADISON, Me., Aug. 11.—

During a severe lightning storm that visited this place late today, Joseph Dello, Jr., aged 17 years, was burned to death when he was riding on a trolley car. The car was on the tracks at the time and was set on fire. One of the oxen attached to the wagon was killed and Dello's father, who was loading the oats, was knocked unconscious.

ELOQUENT ADDRESS MARKS OPENING OF MASONIC FAIR

Judge Wedderburn Eulogizes Masonry in Splendid Speech at Fair Under the Auspices of Corinthian Lodge at Hampton

—Beautifully Decorated Booths Presided Over by Charming Ladies.

HAMPTON, Aug. 12.—The Masonic fair under the auspices of Corinthian Lodge, No. 13, of Masons, was formally opened in the lodge room of the new Masonic Hall on Everett street, Hampton Station, at 8 o'clock p. m. by an eloquent and spirited address by Most Worshipful Grand Master the Hon. Wm. Wedderburn, who was introduced to the assembled audience by W. Master Wm. W. Frost of Corinthian lodge.

The dull sky and appearance of rain kept many away from the initial gathering, but notwithstanding there was a goodly number present and much enthusiasm was displayed. After congratulating the officers and members of the lodge, the speaker made the following address: "The progress made in the past few years has been a most gratifying one. The lodge has been reorganized and the work of the lodge has been carried on with a vigor and energy that has not been seen for many years. The lodge has been reorganized and the work of the lodge has been carried on with a vigor and energy that has not been seen for many years."

The speaker in an eloquent and referred to the great work toward this end which was being accomplished by His Majesty King Edward VII. who for so long filled the position of grand master over the lodges of the Empire, a position also most worthily filled by his son, King George V. The speaker then pictured the whole militant church united in one mighty body surrounded by the myriads of fraternal organizations with the cross of Christ gleaming in the centre, but that of a solemn opening up a pathway of light from the brotherhood of man on earth to the brotherhood of God in heaven. The song of the angels choir on Bethlehem's plain will be repeated and re-echoed. "Peace on earth, good will to man" After a musical interlude to the good work performed by woman in carrying out the fraternal idea and the high regard in which she is held by the order, the speaker made the following address: "The progress made in the past few years has been a most gratifying one. The lodge has been reorganized and the work of the lodge has been carried on with a vigor and energy that has not been seen for many years."
