Is It Fair?

To the Members of Grace Church.
Dear Brethren:

Great demands are made upon Christianity especially by those who give no aid to this greatest work of soul saving, at the same time few of our young people show much inclination to help. They should see that by their example as well as precept they are thwarting our efforts. It takes many workmen many days to erect a fine building. One rascal can blow it to pieces in a second. So with christianity. Is it fair? Will you leave this great work to a few and then expect ten times the result you could possibly expect in other work?

There are four organized congregations in Waterdown. It behoves us who take the name of Christ to "depart from iniquity" and "avoid the the appearance of evil" that we give the enemy "no reason to blaspheme." Let us remember that if even one of our weakest brethren fail, all the rest suffer. Further, we must defend one another.

There is one thing the writer has often noticed. A certain class of people are very brave when they have health, but let there be a funeral in prospect and they are the very first to raise a howl for the Preacher.
Is it fair? Is it brave? Is it honest?
They allow other people to maintain an institution, and at their convenience use other people's property for nothing. If this were done in the business world such people would be kicked off the street.

The writer has been working for 36 years. In all these years he has never seen one who has dared to refuse a christian funeral. True, he had in one place a saloon-keeper and horse-racer who said with his mouth, "I have been a sinner all my life and have never paid attention to religion, I will die the same way." Never the-less three christian ministers led that funeral procession to a useless grave.
And what afterwards? His elder son was discharged, for gambling, from a splendid position in Eaton's, Toronto. The younger son, a splendidly dressed, came to me when I was struggling to raise five babies on a small stipend, and tried to borrow money. Was it fair? Was the saloon keeper fair to himself, fair to his family, fair to the preacher, fair to christianity? Where is the braver?
Where the honest? Brethren we must as tenderly as possible speak the truth. People are thoughtful.
A few, very few we hope, are too contemptibly mean. Those of us who are fighting for Heaven, must incite one another to good works.
"Visit us with Thy salvation, visit us with salvation O Lord God of Hosts."

Yours faithfully,
H. J. Leake.

Diameter of Pine Tree.
Mr. Hill, lockmaster at Buckhorn, Ont., experimented with a pine tree to determine improved growth which may be secured by proper care. Fifteen years ago, he pruned all the lower branches off a 4-inch white pine sapling, removing other saplings from its vicinity, dug up the earth around it and applied manure to its base. It is now 19 inches in diameter at its base and has a long, clean pole. Thus, during the fifteen years, the growth in diameter has averaged one inch annually. — Conserva-tion.

Tries to Prevent Swearing.
Thorold is leading in the Forward Movement. The town has been placarded with the following:
"Attention! Cursing, swearing, blasphemy and obscene language are against the laws of God. It is also a violation of the laws of your country. It is the language of vulgarity.
Do not forget yourself, but do all you can to prevent the use of profane talk."
(Signed) "Edward P. Foley, Mayor."

Indians Died from "Flu." Five thousand Indians succumbed to the epidemic of the "flu" during the fall and winter of 1918 is the statement of the deputy superintendent general of Indian affairs.

The coming Referendum

Vote and Vote "Yes!" on April 18

THE Ontario Temperance Act as a wartime measure was an unqualified success.

On October 25, 1919, the people of Ontario voted by an overwhelming majority in favor of the permanent continuance of the Ontario Temperance Act, prohibiting the sale of intoxicating beverages.

The "Bootlegger" Must Go

On December 31, 1920, came the repeal of the Federal Order-in-Council—which was also a war-time measure—prohibiting importation, manufacture and export of intoxicating beverages.

Thus it became possible for individuals in prohibition provinces to import liquors for consumption in the home; thus the "bootlegger" is able to offer the same for sale contrary to law, and thus the expressed will of the people in this province is being defeated.

Importation Must Cease

Everything that applied in the last vote against the sale of intoxicating beverages within this province applies equally to the Use of them, and their Importation for beverage purposes should also be prohibited.

Hence arose necessity for further legislation and another Referendum.

Shall the Importation and the bringing of intoxicating Liquors into the Province be Prohibited? YES!
