WORLD OF SPORT

FOOTBALL

The Darrell Football Club and a number of rooters went to Windsor on Saturday. The Darrell team was composed as follows:— Goal—H. French. Goal—H. French. Backs—B. Fisher and A. Pugh. Half-backs—M. Abram, McNaughton and Pettipiece. Right Wing—Roy Abram and F. Pugh. Centre—J. Fisher. Left Wing—Gregory and Jenks.

WELL DONE, DARRELL!

The old rivalry which has existed from time immemorial between the Chatham and Windsor football clubs blossomed into being on Saturday evening when the news reached this city that Darrell had put it all over the Windsor aggregation in the first of the final games for the Walker cup. The Chathamites instantly assembled themselves in service of thanksgiving and general rejoicing. Darrell was toasted and cheered and Windsor greeted with ironical howls. The senior member of the local refereeing wing who, as before-mentioned, is somewhat of a musical maestro, retired to the seclusion of his studio and wail sounds proceeded therefrom. After a brief period he re-appeared bowing and smiling and submitted the following original and chaste ballad set to music: "To be sung with expression."

"Poor old Windsor! (softly and sympathetically).
"Poor old Windsor!! (shaking the head sadly).
"Poor old Windsor!!! (tearfully and pathetically).
They tho't they'd clinched the Walker cup (double forte and with marked irony).
But the Darrell boys just gobbled it up (triumphantly).
"Poor old Windsor! (slowly and with sob at intervals).
D-A-R-R-E-L-L (strong staccato movement).
Darrell! Darrell! (vigorous crescendo).
Give 'em—well, (meditatively).
"Poor old Windsor! (everybody weeps copiously).
"Then repeat and repeat ad infinitum."

Windsor started out with a rush to do the thing up fast and it looked as if they were going to succeed. Not many minutes after the whistle blew to start the Windsor boys rushed the ball and placed it between the stakes, making the first score of the game. After this the Darrell lads seemed to come to themselves and played keeping the ball down toward the Windsor end during the rest of the first half. In the second half the home team played an almost defense game and were helped by a very enthusiastic crowd of rooters. Notwithstanding these facts, the boys from Darrell scored in a very few minutes on a beautiful shot by Jenks, the star wing man of the Darrell team. This tied the score. Both teams worked hard, with the country boys having the better of the argument. Abram soon after the kick off secured the ball dribbling it down the field and successfully worried the sphere through the goal, making the winning goal unassisted. Yes, Gregory made a fine shot, which should have been a goal but struck the posts. Darrell missed another chance to score and the game ended two to one in favor of the visitors. Wm. McDonald refereed.

NOTES

"Just wait until those farmers visit Windsor; we'll go through them like—"
"Captain Kidd, of the Windsor team, was heard remark after the last Darrell-Chatham game.

Windsor! Windsor! Where is Windsor? O yes! it's somewhere under Darrell.

It looks as if the eastern end is going to get the Walker.

Now that we're not in it—here's success to Darrell.

McNaughton played a good game at centre half Saturday.

Darrell boys say the score should have been 4 to 1 instead of 2 to 1.

Have we faint recollections of some nondescript publication, calling itself the "Windsor Record," roasting the Chathamites for favoring the admission of "an easy country team" to the league "just to practice on?"

It wouldn't be a bad idea for the Windsor team to bring the cup up heretofore.

THE EDUCATION BILL

A Strong Speech by Lord Rosebery—Passed the Lords.

London, Dec. 6.—The debate on the education bill in the House of Lords last night would have been very dreary but for the intervention of Lord Rosebery, who vigorously denounced the principle of the measure. He demanded a two birds popular control for the schools, and declared that the supporters of the voluntary schools reminded him of the children of Gideon, who had imposed on Joshua with their rags and mouldy bread. The Government scheme was not a national system of education; it was nothing but an ecclesiastical substitute.

The brilliant speech of Lord Rosebery, which was read with frank enjoyment by the whole House, was followed by a fierce, but sense utterance of Lord Halifax. Just before midnight the Duke of Devonshire wound up the debate, and at 12.30 o'clock the bill was read a second time in the Upper House, by 147 votes to 32.

FIFTEEN YEARS FOR BRENNER

Convicted on Both Charges of Shooting With Intent.

Toronto Junction December 6.—Harry Brenner was sentenced by Magistrate Ellis to fifteen years in the Kingston Penitentiary on each of two charges of shooting, the two terms to run concurrently. Brenner was convicted of shooting A. C. Mutart, and also of shooting at John Shaw with intent in each case to do grievous bodily harm. New evidence was presented today that Brenner borrowed a "hilly" from a Toronto man about the date of the shooting. Magistrate Ellis, in delivering sentence, said that it was due to Brenner's impetuosity of aim, and not to any good intention, that he was not guilty of a double murder.

Theatrical

A Royal Slave at The Grand To-Night.—"A Royal Slave" is the greatest and best high class sensational play that has been seen in this country in the last three decades. It is the most original play on the boards to-day. Original in location, in "motif," in plot, and story, in characters, in costumes, in scenic effects, in mechanical surprises, in dramatic situations, in pictures and climaxes; it is the only strongly sensational play that does not descend to "blood and thunder" methods, but has all the literary merit and charm of the best romantic plays; coupled with the thrilling dramatic power of a great melo-drama, and the brilliancy and sparkle of the brightest comedies; and therefore it pleases the most covetous and tramping audience at the same time that it thrills a gallery to the highest point of enthusiasm. It is never tiresome and never allows the interest to once flag, but holds an audience entranced to the last. It touches always the chords of human sympathy and human justice. It has nothing old or hackneyed about it and nothing that enables an auditor to anticipate what is coming next.

"The Convict's Daughter," at The Grand To-morrow Night.—The startling revelation found between the leaves of an old family Bible, disclosing to an escaped convict, the secret of her birth is revealed, however, by Col. Gould himself, when the hand of his supposed daughter is proposed for and accepted by a young Southern gentleman. His rival, however, hears the story also, and in order to win her himself he tries to take advantage of the same. The girl's own father makes his appearance at this unlucky moment and the rival lover remembers him as an escaped convict, and threatens to send him back to prison unless he aids him to win the girl's hand. A brief outline of the plot having been furnished, the author furnishes the rest. He has provided an American play for an American public, full of startling surprises and dramatic climaxes. A clever company of players, each one selected for his or her personal characteristics, and the wealth of beautiful scenery and effects, including the marvellous approaching freight train, and daring escape of the convict, "Weary Willie," makes this a powerful dramatic play, and one cannot afford to miss it!

"IT'S GOOD TEA."

This is what the proprietor of Red Rose Tea claims for it. Some say the claim is too modest, but you may notice that a grocer is very often asked, "Have you any good tea?" The intended "good" in this sense is probably intended to mean "best." So perhaps Red Rose Tea is "The Best Tea."
