"At Merlin—To be addressed by Messrs.
Lewis, Mulvey and Dr. McCully."

The above brief announcement was filled in upon the campaign meeting schedule of the Liberal executive for last evening. Of course the regulation partisan oratory and election manipulations were on dit, the landing of Laurier et al, the exensing of Tarte, Bourassa and Monet, the denunication of John Charlton, H. H. Cook and other old-time Liberals who cannot allow their country to be saddled with incompetency and corruption without protest, and the vigorous vocal finale, "Vive Laurier! Long Livs Tarte! Harrah for Stephens! Good luck to Borden of Dog Biscuit of fame!" and other kindred cries.

All this was doubtless on the boards as usual, but it did not happen quite that way.

Peter Labadie, Sr., Grey St., passed away this morning at the family residence, in his 81st year. Mr. Labadie was born near Chatham and has spent nearly all his life in the Maple City. For the past ten years he has been confinedd to his bed.

Last evening someone took the trouble to pull up a couple of stationary seats in Tecumseh Park, almost destroying them. This certainly is go-"Was I at Merlin last night?" sa'd that gentleman in response to this journal's query this morning "Well, rather! and what kind of a time did we have? "We were booked to hold a Stephen meeting there and were all primed up for the occasion. We reached the hall all the occasion. We reached the hall all right—that was real easy—but there the fun commenced. Fifteen cents admission, please, murmured a sedate, officially attird colored custodian of the door as I essayed to enter, gently plucking at my coat sleeve. True, I was a little nonpussed, but I was bound to be a good fellow and settled instanter. 'I hank you, sir,' was the smooth response and I found myse f within. Both Parties Stumping Hard-I he Orators and What They Said.

AT VALETTA. A generous reception was given to the Liberal-Conservative speakers in the meeting held last evening at Valetta, the Liberal stronghold in Tilbury. There was a darge attendance and the meeting was a successful one.

Mr. Sales occupied the chair.

Thomas Scullard and S. B. Araold addressed the gathering and were accorded a very attentive hearing.

They pointed out that the regovernment had proved a party of piedge-breakers, that there had been no reduction of expenditure, no reduction of taxation and faith had been broken in the neglect to send the preferential of taxation and faith had been broken in the neglect to send the preferential trade commission to England. The speakers alinded to the discrimination in the post office department reductions in favor of the business man and capitalist as against the mechanics and farmer and capital out the reic and farmer and pointed out the re-duction in the poor man's rate in the post office savings department to 21-2 per cent. The government's inability to cope with cold storage was also demonstra-ed, and our condition compared with that of Australia and California, whose fruits reach the English markets in excellent condition, while fruit and perishable goods are rotting through-

John Richardson was given oppor-tunity to speak in defence of the gov-ernment. Hs remarks, however, were largely confined to a demand for proof in official documents of the points points brought out by the Conservative speakers
Mr. Scullard referred him to Hansard, the Globe, and official cabinet The gathering broke up with the usual cheers.

AT BAGNALL'S No opposition was present at the Liberal-Conservative meeting at Bag-nall's last night, although especially invited. Mr. Jervais presided and the gathering was a most largely attended and successful one. The speakers of the evening were Thomas Lee, H. S. Clements and Chas.

R. Atkinson, and all were accorded a very enthusiastic reception on their stirring addresses.'
The speakers took up the extortion ate prices for binder twine, coal oil and sugar and compared the expenses of the farmer in '96 with those of to-day. They pointed out the increased debt. expenditure and taxation. The Brock ile and West Huron election frauds were convincingly exposed and the false position in which Tarte had at-tempted to place the loyal French-Canadians. Mr. Atkinson also pre-sented a very interesting table showing the profits that Ald. Stephens , the Liberal candidate, had made in binder wine out of the farmers. In conluding he paid a eulogy to the public and municipal career of Mayor Smith and his energy and effort on bealf of his constituents. Cheers for the Queen and T. A. Smith brought a spiendid meeting to a termination.

AT THORNCLIFFE.

At Thorncliffe last evening a Libal meeting was held in the interests of D. A. Gordon. The gathering was well attended and the speakers Chas. Stephens was the first speaker. He classed himself as an inde-pendent supporter of Mr. Gordon, and made a brief appeal to the audience in his interests. D. A. Gordon, the candidate, was given a good reception and made a somewhat lengthy address. He produced invoices to show that the glass works were buying their coal oil at 141-2c per gallon by the barrel and contended that coal oil in tank wagons was sold in Chatham, Wallaceburg and Sarnia from 12c. per gallon up, while in Detroit it sold for 11 cents. Mr. Gordon also dealt with the binder twine question, claiming that there had been a large saving to the people in the policy of the government in placing twine upon the free list and thus destroying the possibility of a combine. He reviewed the adminis-tration of agriculture under Hon. Sydney Fisher and endeavored to combat Mr. Clancy's convictions in favor of a fast steamship service in the carriage of fruit from Canada to England, contending that the expense would eat up the value of proluce, just as fast as serviced by rail does, and showing, in this connection, the cost of an animal shipped from Chatham to New York, via express, as opposed to sending it by the ordinary channels. Mr. Gordon contended that with a refrigerator system the necessity for ocean express service was done away with.

was done away with.

J. G. Kerr followed and took up the preferential trade policy and claimed its direct effect upon the United States in forcing the American manufacturer to undersell the British manfacturer in the Canadian market. Mr. Kerr alluded to the H. H. Cook charges and characteristics. and characterized it as absurd to put confidence in a man who had kept these charges in his head since '96. He alluded briefly to the question of cold storage and the increase of ex-penditure, contending that the fair way to compare the same was in reway to compare the same was in rea very hearty reception. The earnest and convincing efforts of Geo. G. Martin, who spoke for two hours, D. A. Hutchison, Mr. Taylor, of Cedar Springs, and Donald Douglas were warmly applauded, and a successful gathering broke up with cheers for the Queen and Conservative candidata.

The Stephens meeting at Quinr last evening was largely attended, there also being a fair sprinkling of laces present. John A. McGregor occupied the chair. Ald. Stephens addressed the meeting, showing that the farmers were better off for the past four years under the Laurier administration than under the Conservative regime. He was well received. E. E. Parrott spoke preferential trade. He also attempted to justify the Government on the temperance question. Henry Robinson spoke for 40 minutes on behalf of the Conservatives. He dealt with the charges made against the present Government and with the H. H. Cook letters. He also mention ed the present Ontario school law and school system. Mr. Farquharson, of Valetta, the next speaker, was well received. He answered Mr. Robinson and then made a direct address to the young people showing how necessary it was to nevshowing how necessary it was to never do any act they might be ashamed to have reported either verbally or in the press. He scorned the idea of selling a vote, and such an act placed both the buyer and seller on the same low level.
