Hollyhock Seedlings, choice varieties, variegated colors. Apply to Miss Rosamond Archibald, Phone 159.

In the first game of the Valley High School Baseball League, played yesterday, the Wolfville boys defeated the Kentville Academy team by the score of 9 to 7.

Miss Ruth MacDonald, pupil of the famous New York teachers, Oscar Sanger and Joseph Regneas, will accept a few more vocal pupils for the summer months. Phone 337.

A Milne Fraser, Typewriter Dealer of Halifax, will be in Wolfville, Monday afternoon, June 1st. Any one wishing to purchase a new or secondhand typewriter should leave word at Acadian Office and he will call.

Wolfville has a new medical practitioner in the person of Dr. Allan Morton, of Halifax. Dr. Morton has taken rooms at F. W. Barteaux's on Main street, where he will be found ready to meet patients who require his professional services.

A rumor is current in the Valley to the effect that fruit growers who have claims upon the English Fruit Importing House of Nothard & Lowe, which went into bankruptcy during the winter, will be paid 100 cents on the dollar.—Berwick Register.

We have received an invitation to attend an exhibition of work done by the students of the Vesper George School of Art, at Boston, which takes place May 30 to June 1. Miss Gwendolyn Hales, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hales, is a student at this school.

Those who attended the Orpheum Theatre last evening witnessed the presentation of one of the best pictures shown here for some weeks. It was entitled, "Madonna of the Streets", and the leading parts were taken by Nazimova and Milton Sills, both favorites. The picture will be again shown tonight.

The dance given by the "Harmony Six" orchestra on Tuesday night in Community Hall was a great success. There were about 150 in attendance and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves, many appreciative comments on the orchestra being heard. With such an organization in our town it should not be necessary in future to bring in an outside orchestra for any dance that may be held.

Tuesday was nomination day for the civic election to fill the place at the Council board made vacant by the resignation of Coun. Mitchell. There was only one nomination, that of Dr. William Grant, who is thus elected by acclamation. Although only a resident of Wolfville for a comparatively few years, Dr. Grant has evinced a keen interest in all the affairs of the town and his election should bring added strength to the administration of our municipal affairs.

ACADIA CLASS DAY EXERCISES

The graduating class of Acadia Ladies Seminary held their Class Day Exercises in University Hall on Monday afternoon, before a good sized audience. The members of the class marched to their places on the platform, and looked most attractive in their frocks of white and red, and ties, made by themselves. The officers of the class are: Lina M. Price, President; Christine M. Cavanagh, Vice President; Mary F. MacDonald, Secretary; Dorothea P. Mullin, Treasurer.

The program this year was of a different nature than it has been in the past. Instead of the class history and prophecy, an All Senior edition of the Pierian Paper had been prepared, which was read by Misses Ena Koop, Mary Fearon and Alexandra McLean. The musical numbers consisted of a vocal duet by Misses Mary Brady and Doris Leard, and a piano solo by Miss Margaret Barnaby. The Valedictory was given by Miss Evelyn Hatfield.

The Class Day Exercises of the Graduating Class of the University were held on Tuesday morning, before a large audience. The officers of the class are: R. A. Thorne, president; Evelyn R. Bentley, vice-president; Inga Marion Vogler, secretary; Vernon D. Shaffner, treasurer.

After the entrance march the president welcomed the friends to their exercises in a few appropriate words, commenting on the fact that they were the first class to graduate in the new building.

The reading of the minutes and the roll call was performed by the secretary, Inga Vogler. In the business discussion, it was decided that the sum of $500 be appropriated from the class funds towards the cost of the chandeliers and lighting fixtures in the auditorium. A solo was rendered by Harry Mollins which was well received.

Claire Cullen read the Class History. This was one of the best histories heard at Acadia in recent years and received great attention.

The Class Prophecy, by Theodore Roy, was of a humorous vein, and showed wit and originality.

Preston Warren gave the Valedictory, which was poetic in its language and a masterpiece of expression.

AVONPORT

Miss Olive Parker, accompanied by her friend, Miss Verna Brown, of Halifax, spent the week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Parker, returning to the city on Tuesday.

Miss Cora Walsh, of Kentville, motor-ed to Avonport on Saturday and spent Sunday and Monday with her mother, Mrs. H. N. Walsh.

Mrs. Herbert Calkin, of Black Rock, Kings county, spent a few days of this week with friends in Avonport, having been called here to see her brother, Mr. Frank Davidson, who was seriously injured by being run over by an auto on Sunday last.

Mr. J. A. Macpherson left on Monday for Newfoundland, where he will spend a week on business for the firm of L. E. Shaw, Ltd.

Word has been received here of the sudden death in Three Hills, Alberta, of Mr. George Bishop. Sincere sympathy is felt for Mrs. Bishop, who spent six months here last year with her sister, Mrs. Jas. Starratt.

Miss Madge Daniels was successful in securing a Commercial diploma from Acadia University, also a medal for typing. Her many friends here congratulate her.

Mrs. Susie Hughes and Miss Minnie Brooks motored to Aylesford on Monday and attended the horse races.

Mrs. Levi Daniels, of Martock, spent the week end with her sister, Miss Alice Fuller.

BACK YARDS

Our house front may be shining with varnish and with paint, Our windows all may glisten in the sun; We may sweep and dust and clean till ready 'most to faint,

And hang up brand new curtains one by one; But if our back yard's cluttered with rubbish and with dirt, Soiled milk bottle and old tomato cans, Our neighbors, when they look from their windows, may be hurt.

A beautiful green lawn is a charming sight to see, With robin redbreast tripping here and there, But if the weeds are carried back and thrown down carelessly In great untidy heaps, our neighbors stare.

And make unkind remarks about the nice effect and grout At the way things in our back yard appear; They care little how we beautify our property in front.

If it's full of piles of rubbish in the rear, "Always put your best foot foremost," grandmother used to say, And maybe to a great extent that's true;

But we ought to move the other foot as fast along the way, With no worn spots or run down heels to view. "Love your neighbor as yourself" is a better rule today.

For you'd like him to assist you in your plans; But your neighbor will not love you, and will look the other way. If your back yard's full of dirt and old tin cans,—Ray H. Cross, in the Philadelphia Bulletin.
