

TROUBLES OF MARRIED LIFE.

TWO CASES OF IT IN POLICE COURT TO-DAY.

Magistrate Advises a Truce in the Levy-Scherowsky Campaign, and a Separation at New Year.

The case of Bowser and his mother-in-law is a peaceful honeymoon compared with that of Harry Hyde, 61 Vine street, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Graham. When Hyde saw fit to take a summons out to try and eject his wife's mother on a charge of trespass that morning, the summons even when Constable J. Smith served her personally. As she did not appear this morning the Magistrate issued a warrant for her arrest and the hard-hearted back-benchers did not even have a high of sympathy. The Magistrate said this morning to the reporters that if Miss Mary Graham sees fit to cheer up some other forlorn house with her presence and does not bother Harry again she will not be arrested.

The house at 202 York street was well represented again this morning when Mrs. Levy, too sick to answer a summons against herself yesterday for assaulting Mrs. Scherowsky, appeared against that same lady on a charge of assault. The evidence was the same as that given in the case yesterday when Mrs. Scherowsky was fined $2. The Magistrate proposed that on New Year Mrs. Scherowsky should vacate the premises and in the meantime the parties should plant a flag of truce at the head of the stairs where it could be seen when the passion to fight welled up within them.

Charles Housden and his wife Alberta could not agree, so they came to court to get the matter of justice to smooth their marital relationship out. Mrs. Housden charged her husband with failing to supply support for her and her child for the past two months. Housden said his wife would not stay away from her relatives as she had promised him she would do, and also that she had been responsible for race suicide in their family. The Magistrate held this to be no cause for desertion and he ordered Housden to pay his wife $3 per week. George S. Kerr appeared for the husband and J. G. Farmer for the wife.

Harry Beverly, 188 Simcoe east, was warned not to run his pushcart on the sidewalk again and was allowed to go.

DRUCE CASE.

Points That Detective Huckle's Witnesses Bring Out.

The witness in the Druce case whom Detective Huckle has found to be possessed of information important enough to warrant sending him to England, and who left yesterday to sail from New York on Saturday, is a Boston man. He has made an affidavit to the effect that he knew Van Alsteden at Rotterdam and Antwerp in 1873; that he was always well supplied with money, and that he told him he got it from a grand duke or archduke, or some titled man in England, who paid him yearly to keep his "mouth shut." This witness has given details of his visits to England which, Mr. Huckle thinks, will be useful in the trial.

Three other affidavits have also been forwarded. One is from a Montreal man, who says he has, on several occasions, seen the Duke and another man enter a closed carriage early in the morning, at the back of the Abbey. The carriage would be brought there at night and the horses would be brought back without the carriage. Also that at times he saw the man in the kitchen garden with the duke.

A woman who has resided in Hamilton 27 years, and whose husband was a mason and stonecutter employed by the duke, has made an affidavit as to a peculiar trouble which the Duke had in his side, and which he had told her husband was the reason why he never married.

Another affidavit from a man who is now in the United States, and has been in this country three or four years. This man swears that he worked for the duke. He saw a German making a long box at the Baker street bazaar; that afterwards the German took a large black cloth into the bazaar stealthily and that the box, or coffin, he had made was covered with it; that the duke was alive at the time—December, 1864.

Bignar & McBrayne, who, some years ago, sent an affidavit supporting the defence in the perjury case now going on in England, have received no reply yet.

EAST END REVIVAL.

Evangelist Turk Will Remain Here All Week.

The meeting last evening in connection with the union revival movement in East Hamilton was held in the Y. M. C. A. building and took the form of a workers' meeting. Mr. W. Frank Coote, chairman of the committee of management of East Hamilton Y. M. C. A., led the meeting and gave a very forceful address on personal work. He referred to the kind of personal work that had been for years carried on by the late H. Clay Trumble, editor of the Sunday School Times. Mr. Trumble soon after his conversion was led to the decision that it was his duty and privilege to embrace each opportunity given in the discharge of other duties to do personal work amongst those with whom he came in contact. By this means he had been the instigator of many blessings to a large number of people. Mr. Coote referred to those who had been converted during the past few weeks, and many in the audience undertook to interest themselves in a large number of these persons and endeavor to get them to the services during the balance of the week. Evangelist Turk will remain here for these meetings this evening and during the rest of this week.

The range of player-pianos offered by Heintzman & Co. Limited, No. 71 King street east, Hamilton, makes it possible for anyone to own one of these growingly popular instruments. It is the correct thing now to have in your home a player-piano for any member of the family can play it, though absolutely ignorant of a note of music.

SUGAR DUTY.

Vienca, Dec. 11.—The budget committee of the Reichsrath to-day approved the bill reducing the duty on sugar by eight krone.

PRETTY WEDDING.

Mr. Wm. Tarbutt Takes a Bride From England.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place last evening at the residence of Mrs. Tarbutt, 219 Picton street east, when Mr. Wm. Tarbutt, of this city, and Miss Emily Kemp, formerly of Woodford Green, Essex, England, were united in the holy bonds. The bride looked charming in a becoming wedding gown. Miss Jessie Wilkinson was bridesmaid, and Mr. Earl G. Tarbutt assisted the groom. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. James Bracken, of Vergara Avenue Baptist Church, a wedding supper was partaken of, and all present joined in the best wishes and congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Tarbutt will reside here.

COURT IMPERIAL.

Companions of the I. O. F. Hold Annual Meeting.

There was a good turnout at the regular meeting of Companion Court Imperial, Independent Order of Foresters, last evening. The event was held in the chambers of the court, Barton street east. The principal business transacted was the election of officers for the coming year. There were several contests for the various positions, the result being: Comp. On account of the date of the next meeting of the court falling on Christmas eve it was decided that no meeting be held until the second Tuesday in January.

CHOSEN FRIENDS.

J. J. Morton, re-elected; Vice-Councilor, Matthew Skedden; Recorder, G. R. Bittenberg; Assistant Recorder, Miss R. Friends Charles Schaefer and James Pottinger, of Council No. 111, and Dr. Rogers of the home council, acted as scrutineers, and received a hearty vote of thanks.

SANFORD EVANS

Headed Poll in the Winnipeg Elections Yesterday.

Winnipeg, Dec. 11.—While there was no majority election in Winnipeg, Mayor Ashdown having been unopposed, there was intense interest in the contest for the Board of Control and aldermen, the citizens' ticket winning out handsily. This ticket was put up by the Board of Trade and other public bodies, and had as its platform a careful administration of the city's finances, a reduction of expenditure and a postponement of the power scheme until the financial stringency was passed and the bond market had improved.

The complete citizens' ticket for controllers was returned. The figures are: W. Sanford Evans, 3,304; Controller Baker, 2,911; Controller Harvey, 2,737; ex-Ald. Latimer, 2,475; Controller Garson, 2,004; Controller Cockburn, 1,727; J. Burridge, 1,128.

AT THE ALEXANDRA.

Last night another success was scored at this rink, notwithstanding the weather. The large crowd that filled the floor thoroughly enjoyed the music by the two full bands—music of a very popular and pleasing nature. The idea of only playing twenty numbers instead of twenty-four was much appreciated by the skaters, as they were thus able to secure their different partners without any confusion, thereby making the evening much more enjoyable.

To-night is ladies' night, when special music will be played for ladies' skating in couples, alone and two-stepping music. These, of course, by the full band of the Ninety-first Highlanders under the direction of H. A. Stares, which is playing all week at the Alexandra. Tomorrow will be military night. Competition open to all regiments; three prizes for the best skaters in uniform; one prize for the best dressed skater, in civilian order, and one prize for the best dressed private, drill order. Hats are not to be worn on the rink. Officers from each regiment will act as judges for these contests so that the men may look for a keen competition.

"Japanese Honeymoon" Promoter Back in Toronto.

Toronto, Ont., Dec. 11.—E. H. Coates, a promoter of musical entertainments for charitable institutions, who recently put on "A Japanese Honeymoon" here in aid of the Broadway Boys' Home, was in the Police Court to-day, charged with theft in connection with the production. Coates had been previously allowed out on bail, and left the city, but returned yesterday. He explained to the Magistrate that he had to go to Buffalo on private business. It is alleged against Coates that he sold over two hundred tickets for "A Japanese Honeymoon" and did not turn in the proceeds. His case will be taken up to-morrow, Coates being allowed out on his own bail for $500.

Petrie, easily defeating him a half mile in 1 min. 32½ sec. The little wonder will give an exhibition at each session during the week.

Panic Producers.

A specimen of the type of individual who helps to bring on financial disturbances was seen the other day in a popular downtown restaurant. In plain view of perhaps two score people a handsome dressed young man took out a roll of bills from an inner waistcoat pocket and proceeded to count them before an older friend sitting vis-a-vis. When the friend realized that the roll consisted of fifty $1,000 bills he remonstrated and told the youth to put the money away. But the other proceeded to take a revolver from another waistcoat pocket and laid it on the table near the roll of bills, with the remark, "That will protect it." It transpired from the conversation that the young man had taken his entire fortune from a perfectly solvent institution and was carrying it in his pocket. Philadelphia Record.
