MARKETS AND FINANCE

Saturday, March 20.—Trade was brisk on Central Market this morning, a large number of market gardeners and farmers being in. The meat market was good. The price of veal dropped about two cents a pound, as the result of oversupply. Spring lambs were selling at $7 and $5 each. The grain market was steady with the exception of an advance of about one cent and a half in oats. The general tone of the market was steady, and with one or two exceptions, prices were unchanged.

Standard missing the morning at $7 and $5 each. The grain market was steady, and with one or two exceptions, prices were unchanged. prices were unchanged. Standard prices at 8 a. m., were:

UNION HORSE EXCHANGE.

Manager J. Herbert Smith reports having had another good week's business at the Union Horse Exchange. West Toronto. The receipts were 180 horses, nearly all of which were sold at about the same quotations as for last week's sale. A very fine lot of draughters, just down from the lumber woods, sold at prices from $75 to $140 each. One very fine draughter sold at $235. The general run of prices was as follows:

Draughters, $160 to $195; general pursure of the property of the property of the property of the close of the exchange the stock went down to 9 points. It results after the property of t covered and went to 101-2, and was in strong demand at that figure. Large blocks were sold at between 111-2 and 9.

Jand 9.

La Rose was in very good demand yesterday, and made a high-level mark of 6.80. Appearances are that it will go still higher. Temiskaming fell off a few points, selling at 127. Nipissing rallied to $11, an advance of one-quarter from the day previous. Cobalt Lake was in big demand yesterday, and 50,000 shares passed hands on the Standard Exchange in the morning.

The remaining issues were for the most part firm.

On account of the drop in Beaver the company will have to assess the share-inolders.

Rally of Hamilton City Union in James St. Church.

The March rally of the Hamilton City Union of the Baptist Young People's Union was held in James Street Baptist Church on Thursday evening. The meeting was opened by a song service ably led by Mr. George Challen. The business of the evening, including the elecness of the evening, including the election of officers, was then disposed of, after which Mr. H. F. Stenabaugh conducted the devotional exercises.

Greetings were given by Rev, J. C. Sycamore, M. A., and Mr. F. S. Hosking, President of James Street Union, and were responded to by the Rev, W. Quarrington, B. A., Honorary President of the City Union. Another interesting feature was the addresses by representatives from each local union, emphasizing the six main objects of the societies. The speaker of the evening was Rev. A. R. Park, pastor of Parisament. Street Baptist Church. Toronto, who took for his subject "Evangelism." In his address he showed the necessity for clean lives and a complete denial of self before any active work could be accomplished.

ly steady. While the approach of spring has to some extent increased wholesale orders, retail trade is still quiet and will no doubt continue so as long as cold weather lasts. Shipments of spring goods are going forward tairly well but heavy lines generally are awaiting the opening of navigation.

Toronto—There has been rather a better movement to general lines during the past week. Retailers have, as a rule, been buying lightly and they evidently feel that the near appreach of spring makes necessary some additions to their success, or the spring good in the second of the spring past of the spring good in the second of the spring to be so until warm weather starts spring good moving at retail. (Special Despatch to the Times.)

(Galt Reformer.)

From this distance it looks though the detectives on the case had ormed a theory and were trying to make the evidence fit the theory. Why was it left to the counsel for the Kinrade family to discover witnesses that had seen a man leave the Kinrade home about the time of the murder?
