MRS. ANNIE LOGGIE

In the passing of Mrs. Annie Loggie, relict of the late James Loggie, of Rockheads, Loggieville, whose death occurred at two o'clock Friday afternoon, the Miramichi loses one of its oldest and most respected residents. Deceased was born at Bay du Vin upwards of eighty years ago, and has resided on the Miramichi all her life. The late Mrs. Loggie was a daughter of the late George Williston, and is the second last survivor of a family of ten, the other member who is now living is Mr. Robert A. Williston, of Newcastle. Three sons and one daughter survive, they are George, of Rockheads, Loggieville; William, of A. & R. Loggie, and Co., of Loggieville; Ernest of Mulgrave, Nova Scotia, and Janet, (Mrs. Daniel McDougall), Loggieville.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

MISS FLORENCE FINLEY

A very sad death was that on Friday morning last, in Hotel Dieu, of Miss Florence Finley, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Baron Finley of Chatham, and teacher for the last two years of one of the Ferryville schools. Deceased was operated upon for appendicitis on the previous Saturday. During the week her condition grew worse until death came. She was 21 years old, and graduated from St. Michael's Academy in 1912, and from Normal school in 1914. She was a most estimable young lady and a successful teacher. She is survived by her parents, two sisters—Miss Carrie, who is a student nurse in St. Catherine's hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mary at home; and two brothers—Roy at Moosejaw, Sask., and Herbert of Brooklyn, N. Y. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 3.15.

NEW "SONGS OF THE WORLD"

WAR, BY MICHAEL WHELAN
Mr. Michael Whelan, the Miramichi poet, of Renous, has written some more poetry about the war, which he has had published in a little booklet entitled "Songs of The World War." This should not be confused with his previous volume, as the muse has inspired Mr. Whelan to entirely new utterances on the great theme which is now most prominent in people's mind the world over.

While not of the highest poetic quality, perhaps, Mr. Whelan's verse is not devoid of merit by any means, and the contents of the book may be said to constitute a very creditable effort.

The contents are:—Angel and Star, Balkan Battlefields, Belle of Belgrade, Brave Canadian Boy, Canadian Heroes, Comrade in White, Edith Cavell, Forest of Pine, Freedom's Cry, Grand Fleet, Golden Hill, Golden Horn, Golden West, Heroine of Loos, Kaiser's Lament, Kitchen of Kartoum, Lusitania, O'Connell's Prayer, Our Country's Call, Requiem, Resurgam, Soldier Boy, St. Michael's Prayer, Tyrant of the Rhine, World War.

Mr. Whelan's poems have met with a very successful sale, and in order to help along their circulation The Advocate has undertaken to dispose of a limited number of copies which may be obtained at The Advocate office at the selling price fixed by the author, namely 25c each.

A TRIBUTE TO JAMES ARBEAU

It is well I do remember
When the call came out from France,
It was calling for more men
To go and take their chance
And to go into those dugouts
In those trenches cold and wet,
To serve their King and country
And do their little bit.

And away out in those dugouts
In the trenches cold and wet
Many and many a man has died,
And men are dying yet
My brother said that he would go
And take his little chance
He said he would like to go
And see those fields in France.

I'm glad our boy is brave enough
To the Flanders' field to go
To serve King and Country
And face the fiercest foe.

Come all young men why don't you go?
Why are you standing back?
Why don't you go and do your bit.
So save your Union Jack?
Come join this boy in khaki
And say that you will go
To the fields of France and Flanders
And help to face the foe.

And when this war is over
And peace again does reign
How glad we'll be to see our boy
Come marching home again.
Their bugles they'll be blowing
When the flags are flying high
We know the boys will do their bit
They'll conquer or they'll die.

Composed by Mrs. Ernest J. Beek, of Doaktown, in memory of her loving brother, Corp. James F. Arbeau, who went overseas with 132nd Batt., and is now at Bramshott Camp, England.

THANKFUL MOTHERS

Thousands of thankful mothers throughout Canada—many of them your own neighbors—speak with the greatest praise of that splendid medicine, Baby's Own Tablets. Many mothers would have no other medicine for their little ones. Among these is Mrs. Albert Nic, St. Brieux, Sask. who says: "I have been using Baby's Own Tablets for the past seven years and they have done my four children a world of good. I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The 1917 Better Farming Special of the Provincial Department of Agriculture is to be conducted in New Brunswick on a more extensive scale than during any previous year. It will start on its tour in July and meetings will be held in all the important farming sections. It is planned to have the special remain at the different places for two or three days and public meetings are to be held. The short courses at Woodstock and Sussex will be held next February.

TENDERS FOR INTERIOR STONE

Parliament Buildings, Ottawa

The Joint Committee on the Reconstruction of the Parliament Buildings desire to use Canadian Stone for the interior finish of the corridors and chambers, provided it can be obtained in proper dimensions and of suitable quality, texture and color, and at fair and proper prices and delivery made within a reasonable time.

Prices and samples of sandstone, marble, limestone and granite will be received by the undersigned until 4 p. m. December 5th, 1916. About 15,000 cubic feet more or less of stone is required for the interior lining of the corridors, lobbies, chambers, etc. A stone that is light in color, either light grey or buff, will be preferred, medium to fine grained in texture, uniform in color and free from veins, iron stains, vents and other defects of this nature. Give description of the quarry, and state the thickness of beds and dimensions of the stone that can be supplied. Submit a three inch by three inch by five inch sample, and state price per cubic foot delivered P. O. B. Ottawa; also the date on which the delivery can be commenced and the number of cubic feet that can be supplied per month.

Envelopes containing prices to be marked "INTERIOR STONE".

FACTS ABOUT TIMBER

Business is based upon facts and one of Canada's leading businesses is her forest products industry. The figures showing the increases and decreases in different parts of this industry are given in the bulletins just issued by the Forestry Branch of the Department of the Interior covering the calendar years 1914 and 1915. These bulletins are sent to men in the trade but any citizen interested who has not received a copy may secure one free upon applying to the Director of Forestry, Ottawa. The specific bulletins are as follows: Bulletin 58A, lumber, lath and shingles; Bulletin 78B, pulpwood and wood-pulp; Bulletin 58B, poles and railway ties.

THE ANSWER IS WEAR RUBBERS

Many People Will Don Goloshes Early This Season to Combat the High Cost of Leather Foot-wear

"Buy rubbers," says the shoe-man, the dealer who plays fair with his customers.
Leather is up and shoes are up to such an extent that the buying of a pair of shoes is almost on a level with the acquiring of a new suit or coat. Shoes must be worn, but the economical person will don rubbers as soon as the weather gets the least bit "damp under foot"; not only for the protection to the health that the rubbers afford, but to save the costly shoes he or she wears.

There was never a problem in economics that was not solved sooner or later, and rubbers and overshoes seem to be the answer to the augmented price of shoes this winter.

BRITISH WOOD MARKET

The wood circular of Farnsworth & Jardine, Liverpool for November, says:—

New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Spruce and Pine Deals—About 6,500 standards arrived to the Mersey, including Manchester Ship Canal during the past month, against 6,500 standards for the corresponding month last year. The consumption, viz., 7,320 standards exceeded the import but falls short of 1915, viz., 10,570 standards; stocks amount to 34,190 standards; against 31,350 this time last year. There is a better tone in the market but forward transactions are few, not surprising in view of the stock held here and in Manchester for shippers' account, values are firmer. Pine deals—Fair headway was made with the cargo of Miramichi reported last month; prices are steady and stocks are moderate.

Quotations follow:
St. John birch, 3 shillings to 3 shillings 9 pence per foot; spruce deals, St. John, Miramichi, etc., 23 pounds 10 shillings to 28 pounds per standard; Nova Scotia deals 22 pounds 10 shillings to 26 pounds; spruce boards, etc. 21 to 25 pounds.
