Miner's Lament for Education.

Miner's Lament for Education. We are passing through the Canadian section in the Fisheries Building at the World's Fair, and the remark quoted above involuntarily came from my lips when I saw on an exhibit of canned lobsters the words "Magdalen Islands." Memory became busy in an instant, and the experiences of other days about these islands, which constitute a part of my life's history, rose rapidly to my mind. Of these now:

CONSTITUTIONAL CURE.

Constitutional Cure. I suffered for a long time with constipation and tried various medicines without success. When tried Herold's Toilet Balm and very soon had great relief. I used it once and am now completely cured.

AN EXCELLENT REMEDY.

An Excellent Remedy. We have Hager's Pectoral Balm in our house for over three years, and find it an excellent remedy for all forms of cough and cold. In throat and lung troubles it affords instant relief.

The Magdalen Islands.

The Magdalen Islands. With the waves. And memories of past nights come back to me, when sudden gales caught the fleet on a lee shore, and in the darkness and storm, we had to hastily weigh anchor and sail away under full sail.
