Two of the valuable silver dollars the issue of 1891 were found this month among the property of a lady in Carlisle, Pa., who had at one time been a prominent party caterer. The last time a dollar of 1891 sold the price paid for it was $3,000. There were more than 100 silver dollars minted in 1891, the bulk of them were lost at sea while being transported to the Mediterranean fleet. There are thought to be only four of the coins in existence. These four now accounted for.

That said, they say: "Women not only drink but they drink strong wines and champagne, and it is no uncommon thing to see them so flushed and drunk that they lose all sense of decency and say things that, bad as they are in men, sound horrible in women. Here is an opportunity for reform."

The Late Captain Henry Thomey.

There passed away on Saturday at Harbor Grace in the person of Henry Thomey a very remarkable Newfoundland, one of the old vikings, a veteran sealing master, and the son of another skipper, Arthur Thomey, as well known and as successful as the celebrated son. Henry Thomey had attained the great age of 91 years but on his visit recently to St. John's he appeared to enjoy wonderful health and the spirit of a boy. The Ridley, in whose employ the Thomes served for two generations thought a great deal of their skipper. One of the great events of the spring was Thomey's arrival to Ridley's, or the famous Az. Munden to Munn's. Thomey was great as a teller of yarns about the ice, but Az. Munden beat him hollow.

They were splendid men, those old sealing skippers, and nearly all baymen. Thomey's success at the ice in the Isabella Ridley was phenomenal, and he made good trips both in the s.s. Commodore and s.s. Greenland, whilst Thomey was remarkably successful, averaging 4,000 for 40 years and never losing a man. Like every one else, he had had luck, especially in what is known as the Bloodhound year, which the local poet has commemorated—

"The Mary Joyce is stuck in the ice
And so is the Bloodhound too;
To paddle his own canoe."

Capt. Robert Bartlett.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Sir,—Is it not strange that after receiving the generous, unstinted praise of all nations and newspapers for his great work in the Arctic, that the first cowardly attack upon Captain Robert Bartlett should be made by a newspaper published in his own country, the home of his family for four generations?—though most reluctantly we admit this, it is nevertheless a fact. We are pleased to note, however, that it has raised a most indignant protest wherever it has been read. Captain Bartlett and his family have been highly respected in Newfoundland many years before the editor of the newspaper in question was born, and the utterances of his newspaper will reflect discredit on no one but himself. Almost every civilized nation has honored Bartlett and conferred medals upon him. The British press has been most lavish in its praise, affectionately referring to him as the "Shackleton of North America." An American publication just issued by the Frederic A. Stokes Company pays a most glowing tribute to Bartlett in the following words:

"The long generations of ice and ocean fighters behind this brave, indomitable young Newfoundland captain seemed to be re-living in him, the strenuous days that carried the flag of England 'round the world.'"

In face of such a tribute it is hard to understand how any newspaper, especially one printed in Newfoundland, could be guilty of an attack on Captain Bartlett, the man whose very name brings a flush of pride to the cheek of every son and daughter of Terra Nova. It is sincerely hoped that a fitting rebuke will be tendered the author of the editorial.

Captain Bartlett is proud of his motherland, and every true Newfoundland is proud of him.

Narrow Escape.

Mr. Austin Parsons, of Oterbury, had a very narrow escape from an untimely end on the 7th of December last. It happened at Brig Bay, St. Barbe District, where Mr. Parsons was in pursuance of his work as assistant to Head Constable Sheppard, who was acting this season in that district as warden, and for the general observance of the law.

Eight of these savage brutes of mongrel breed, called Labrador dogs, made a sudden and ferocious attack on him, biting him badly and bringing him, despite his struggles, to the ground. Quick and terrible death now stared him in the face. In one minute all would be over with him. But providentially "Head" Constable Sheppard and the owner of the dogs heard his calls for help and arrived at the spot just in time to drive them off and rescue him from the horrible fate of being eaten alive!

Much credit is due to the skilful and prompt way in which Constable Sheppard (whose lessons in "First Aid" now came in so well) cutwounded and dressed the wounds and daily attended to the sufferer in place of a doctor. Mr. Parsons cannot say too much in praise of Mr. Sheppard. He is now almost recovered from the shock and his wounds are nearly healed. He is thankful to have escaped so well.—Standard.

Reid-Nfld. Co's Ships Arrive.

The s.s. Home, Capt. A. Blandford arrived at 10.35 p.m. Saturday to lay up here for the winter at the dock premises. She made a good run down from Bay of Islands, having had fine weather all through.

The s.s. Clyde, Capt. Job Kneel, entered port at 7.45 p.m. yesterday, having concluded her service for this season on Notre Dame Bay. She had good weather coming up except for a S. E. blow during the afternoon. She also will lay up at the dock premises to get an overhaul before taking up next seasons work.

Violently Resisted the Police.

A well known West Ender who very often spends a term in jail, came down Water Street Saturday night and insulted several people passing by. Near the foot of Pilot's Hill he accosted almost every female he met, and was noticed by Constable Cleary and another officer who arrested him. He gave the men much trouble, but despite his struggles he was handcuffed, and though he fought with the officers all the way he was eventually landed in the cells.

A Lady Says:

"Those Magic are wonderful powders for relieving headache. I don't think I ever took anything which relieved me so quickly and without any ill after effects." They can be had only at W. T. COURTENAY, corner of Duckworth and Prescott Streets.—Jan. 7th.

The Portia Here.

The s.s. Portia, Capt. T. Fitzpatrick, arrived here at 3.30 p.m. Saturday from the westward after a trip which was remarkable for bad weather. After leaving here on the 26th December she had good weather until leaving Burgeo, on the 30th, when a regular blizzard was the experience with a S. E. gale. This continued until the ship arrived at Port aux Basques next day. She remained in that port owing to stormy weather until daylight Sunday, the 1st inst., and on the run to Bonne Bay the weather was very boisterous, the same prevailing on the return voyage until she reached Hermitage Bay. She had a fairly good run after that until port was reached. She brought a small freight and these passengers: Messrs. Wilton, Anstey, Daley, Murphy, O'Leary, Costello; Mesdames White, Walsh, Cashin; Misses Power, Broderick; Masters Froehlich, Casuin (2) and 32 second class.

Survey Progressing.

Those engaged at the Southern Shore railway survey are still at work and are doing it with despatch. The weather up to date has been very propitious, there being little frost and no snow to impede the men. They have gone over Cemetery Hill, at Ferryland, and are working across to Shoulder of Mutton, Long Pond, over a level country, and are distant from St. John's about 43 miles. Unless very severe weather occurs the work will continue all winter.

BRUCE'S ROUGH RUN.—The s.s. Bruce did not reach Port aux Basques from Sydney until 3.35 p.m. yesterday owing to a S. E. gale with thick snow prevailing. This necessarily retarded the ship, which took 16 hours to cover the distance. The ship all the season has been doing excellent work and until this voyage has always been on schedule time.

The Frozen Herring Fishery.

Capt. Corkum of Gloucester, whose vessel is now in Bay of Islands, came to town by train Saturday to ask a permit from the Government to take a load of frozen herring in Placentia Bay. He called on the Attorney General to-day to discuss the matter.

"Absolutely Alright."

That is what an authority says of Magic Headache Powders. They cure no ill after effects, which is all right. The price 10 cts. is all right. W. T. COURTENAY, corner Duckworth and Prescott Streets.—Jan. 7th.

C.M.B.C. Annual.

The Cathedral Men's Bible Class had its annual meeting yesterday afternoon at the Synod Hall. There was a large gathering of members, and the chairman, Rev. Jas. Bell, presided. After the chairman's opening remarks the Secretary and Treasurer read their reports, which were of a satisfactory nature. The success of the Harbor Mission boat was referred to, and it was shown that about 800 vessels had been visited during the season and supplied with literature. All those who assisted the Class during the year, including the editors of the papers, were tendered a hearty vote of thanks. The election of officers which took place then resulted as follows: Chairman, Rev. James Bell; Lay Chairman, W. H. Goodland; Secretary, C. D. Whitten; Assistant Secretary, F. E. Ellis; Treasurer, F. Reid; Readers, C. B. Dicks, F. Pearce, N. McLeod and W. H. Hinchcock; Literature Committee, John White, T. Hussey, Geo. Cook, W. Hamlyn and F. Willard; Ushers, R. Pike, W. Butler, W. Curnew and A. Crane; Collector, Geo. Bugden.

Grand Time at Fox Harbor, T.B.

Dear Sir,—There was a grand time at Fox Harbor, T.B., on the 28th ult. among the 30 passengers waiting for the s.s. Ethie. The spread was made at 10 o'clock and the festivities were kept up till 5 a.m., when the s.s. Ethie made her appearance. Then two train skiffs assisted the ship's boat to convey the passengers to the ship. Capt. Goolby and his officers were most kind in attending to the passengers and freight.

We wish to draw the attention of the Colonial Secretary to the need of a shed here for packages. At one time last summer there were seventeen boats alongside to carry freight to and from the steamer. W. F. Jan. 2nd, 1911.

Headache

"My father has been a sufferer from sick headache for the last twenty-five years and never found any relief until he began taking your Cascarets. Since he has begun taking your Cascarets he has never had the headache. They have entirely cured him. Cascarets do what you recommend them to do. I will give you the privilege of using his name."—E.
