An Important Point.

All good housekeepers realize that fat is necessary for cooking, but that the digestibility of the fat must be considered first. Crisco, the pure sweet, vegetable shortening, supplies the necessary fat in a form which is digestible. As has been frequently remarked in connection with Crisco "It brings out the natural flavours of foods." There is no better shortening than Crisco, you will be delighted with its results in cakes and pastry. If you cannot secure Crisco from your grocery store, phone Gerald S. Doyle the local Distributor, who will tell you the nearest place to purchase it.

Your Ceiling Fixtures—are you satisfied with your present ones or would you like something better, more artistic, more up to date? If you are building and wish to install something out of the ordinary, we can positively please you with our handsome line. Come and see them.
