Cancer Cure" Charges

ing a Woman's Cry of Painured by a variety of people, ution of David Williams Bentley, and also with obours without operation. His and the circular concluded. most high God" and referred blessing God had bestowed by a competent doctor for a lar tumor of the breast, which not cancer. Thinking that she suffering from cancer, she got touch with prisoner, whom she to pay £2 a week. One lotion applied was so powerful She suffered great pain om blisters. Then accused applied wretched green ointment, which other aggravateed the complaint. was a powerful caustic, consisting lead oxide and copper sulphate, nd was known as "blue vitriol." As result of prisoner's treatment, Mrs. airham's condition was rendere alignant, and at present she is r. Pashley described the experiens of prisoner's other patients. One an, he stated. was nearly mad owg to William's treatment. This was ased gave a small bottle, the conop," and this contained his secret.

sot £18 for the treatment of the British waters the eel was impelled her way down to the sea-by some mysterious force in Nature) there from four to six such d. A miner was treated, and nion subscribed £19 towards the Williams applied lotton for ed in the man's neck. Details ther cases were given and in by to the chairman, Mr. Pashley ked that in regard to one cas did not say prisoner's treatment sed death. Mrs. Fairham gave stating that she asked for ney back but could not get it. was worse now than before Wil-

OTICE-A Special Meetin he Juvenile T.A. & B. Society be held on Thursday even 21st inst., at 7.30 o'cloc fickets for the Ani ace is requested. By or-HN P. KELLY, Secretary treated her

Open for Business Saturday Feb. 23rd

The "Fifth Avenue" Store

formerly the western store of The English-American Clothing Co.--having been enlarged and thoroughly renovated throughout, will OPEN FOR BUSINESS ON SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23rd, under an entirely new and up-to-date management.

For its opening event the Fifth Avenue Store offers an enormous line of Ladies' Garments in all grades, at the VERY LOWEST PRICES ST. JOHN'S HAS EVER KNOWN.

Watch out for EVERY FIFTH AVENUE STORE AD., there'll be some very interesting bargains in every one of them. The second se

Saturday Feb. 23rd

Open for Business

The Eel's Wonderful

The wonderful homing instinct and the remarkable passage by land and sea of the eel was discussed at the says: British Association.

op," and this contained his secret. From this breeding ground elvers takes to the sea once more.

The cut up two figs, poured the so- migrated at the age of three years, "The female persists in her jourled secret over them, and instruct- and, following a northeasterly course, ney upstream, wriggling through of this locality for the safe depoi the patient to eat the figs when at ork. Williams once wrote "The ork. Williams once wrote "The drawn arrived ultimately at the coasts of minute interstices, or climbing the of the small and delicate ova. Here ork. Williams once wrote "The drawn arrived ultimately at the coasts of minute interstices, or climbing the of the small and delicate ova. Here ork. Williams once wrote "The drawn arrived ultimately at the coasts of minute interstices, or climbing the of the small and delicate ova. Here ork williams once wrote "The drawn arrived ultimately at the coasts of minute interstices, or climbing the of the small and delicate ova. Here ork williams once wrote "The drawn arrived ultimately at the coasts of minute interstices, or climbing the of the small and delicate ova. Here ork williams once wrote "The drawn arrived ultimately at the coasts of minute interstices, or climbing the of the small and delicate ova. Here ork williams once wrote "The drawn arrived ultimately at the coasts of minute interstices, or climbing the of the small and delicate ova. Here ork will arrive or the small and delicate ova. Here ork will arrive or the small and delicate ova. Here ork will arrive or the small and delicate ova. Here ork will arrive or the small and delicate ova. Here ork will arrive or the small and delicate ova. Here ork will arrive or the small and delicate ova. Here ork will arrive or the small arrive or the small and delicate ova. Here ork will arrive or the small arr cer." He told one man suffering apparently the search for fresh wat- reaches some suitable fresh-water, penetrates to but a small fraction of cure him completely in six to the efforts the young cel would in which she remains for from five eggs are hatched." to the shorts he young self which she remains for from he have in his endeavor to reach it. In to twenty years burying herself in the mud in hard winter weather. When sexually mature she may be true cure. A youth named Hutchwho was treated by prisoner tuous path over rocky ground, and in at this time, the head (like that of the arrested the complaint in any fish hatched in deep salt water in the poultice used by Williams Tropics should undertake so great a journey to a colder climate. After a greater brilliance and an enormous to return to his place of origin, and, husbands, and devouring each of them Bogus Telegram reaching there, soon after reproduc- after mating—and swims straight to Homing Instinct ins the species, died." a correspondent of the Observer, who between 22 and 30 degrees N., and 48 the eastern border of the Sargasso Dr. J. Schmidt explained to the upstream beyond the limits of tidal Sea. to William's treatment. This was ground of the cell had at last been from five to six years before attaing definitely located at a spot in the At- sexual maturity, and a total length gion presenting a deep depression lantic northeast of the West Indies. of not over twenty inches, when he where the water is still and free troops

A doctor would tell the magistances that prisoner's treatment had "it was, he said, remerkable that becomes longer—owing to a forwar sojourn of about twelve years in size. By river and estuary she make Another glimpse of this wonderful the bottom of the Atlantic, which occhapter in natural history is given by cupies a comparatively small area-

> "Here she swims straight down to the bottom of the ocean-in this re-

Have you a Suit or Overcoa goods at prices that are absolute ly the lowest for first class work. FARRELL THE TAILOR, 310

A pastel shade of organdie is use to a Bishop

On a charge of aiding, abetting, of 60 degrees W.—thus trenching on Winstone to utter a forged telegram that he are the power of the Carriers having the counselling winstone to utter a forged telegram that he are the counselling winstone to utter a forged telegram that he are the counselling winstone to utter a forged telegram that he can be seen to the counselling winstone to utter a forged telegram that he can be seen to the counselling winstone to utter a forged telegram that he can be seen to the counselling winstone to utter a forged telegram that he can be seen to the counselling winstone to utter a forged telegram that he can be seen to the can be seen to th purporting to be written by the then Prime Minister (Mr. Stanley Baldpool Police Court fined 210 and Keys, who said that for the last five

Mr. Howard Roberts, who pros-scuted, said the telegram, drafted while Mr. Karran and Miss Winstone Isle of Man-Meet me Adelphi three to-morrow afternoon. Most important.—Baldwin.

Legislative Chamber of the Isle of Man and went to Liverpool. There he found that the telegram was a of the Isle of Man, in which he said Douglas and was not that the telegram was sent as a joke, ageress of a cafe in E fuss about it. I swear I never gave "I think the reason for sending the the Enabling Bill a thought when I telegram given by Mr. Karran's countries the logic a singularly of wrote the telegram. Mr. Chappell, defending Mr. Kar-ran, a middle-aged man who pleaded guilty, called Mr. Mark Karine, for-years Mr. Karran had acted as an unpaid voluntary curate at St. Mat-thew's Church, Douglas, and had been an efficient worker. He was inclined to take a humorous view of things and to indulge in jokes.

Mr. Chappell said the young wo-man who was put in Mr. Kurran's charge was threatened with sea-sickness, and in order to divert her he attempted to joke.

It was in the minds of some peo-ple that the labours of the bishop were to be rewarded by a translation to a see in England and that the bishop would bear such translation a statement to the Chief Constable was formerly employed at a hotel in a dozen articles of a kind and selleth. ing of the Enabling Bill on December his manner that he was playing a sel makes the joke a singularly of- Remodeling Sale, and I sell his Old fensive one," commented the stipendtary.-London Daily Mail, Jan. 25.

ers, being a revival of a quaint old run a sale on the demand of those who

BY BEN BATSFORD

The Auctioneer Parable of Safed within. And the crowd was not large, for was it very active, but the Stock. was moving. For one man bought s Watch for seven-eighty five, and anther bought a Ton set for twenty-an Early Lunch, for I must get back Noon Hour. Come with me, I pray thee, into this place appointed for those who eat, and let us have a andwich together.

"And I said, I am interested in the

"And he said, Mine is an interesting Business. My name and my face are familiar to all who are in the Auction Game, for I advertise in the Trade Papers, and I am the Best

"And I said, Talk shop unto me, I

"And he said. The whole secret of the Auction Business is to sell things they wanted them and to make them glad they did it. Thou sawest a man buy a Watch, and he had a good watch already. Thou sawest another buy a Silver Tea set, and, behold, his wife hath more dishes than she knoweth what to do with. There be few men who enter Auction Rooms with intent to bid It is my business to sell goods unto them.

"And I said, Dost thou sell Jewelry take up each set a few words about the Author, and with the First Volume open at, a good passage to read aloud.

And I read distinctly, and I am careful most of all never to mispron mace a name, but to speak it with distinc tion and familiarity and respects Goethe, or Carlyle, doth go far toward the sale of a set of Books. But I am not literary, and have had little oling, therefore do I specializa in Jewelry and Art, for I know that

"Behold, the curse of the Jewelry usiness and the blessing of the Auctioneer is that the Jeweler buyeth seven or eight before that style changeth, and his profits are tied up adding: I decided to come and see did not remember Mr. Karran refer-the Chief Constable after the pass-ring to the bishop, but gathered from money. And his reputation in the community is my best asset. And he sendeth for me to help him out and I suggest a Remodeling Sale. So he buyeth some new Wall Paper for his Stock, and mix in enough of my New to keep it going. And many a Jeweler do I save from the Sheriff, and the . The very latest of fur collars ties goods are as good as those that he with a huge ribbon bow and stream- hath kept in stock. But I could never come with intent to buy. "And I said. My business is like unto thine. For I must deliver goods unto those who have not come to buy. even as the prophet said, I am found of them that sought not after me. So must those who come to scoff remain

"And he said. If I were not an Auctioneer, I should like to be a Preacher, Think of the chance a man dot have at a lot of folk who come with no idea of Getting Religion, and of surprising them into taking home a fine assorted lot of Christian Virues. For verily, the Preacher hath

"And he said, Every Theological Seminary ought to require of every Student that he shall serve for a year as an Auctioneer, and they hould ordain no man who cannot deliver Religion unto them who had no atention of getting it, and who are Tickled to Death over their Bargain. For thou sellest Good Stuff, and so words of the Auctioneer The

How to Purify the Blood