The above is a list of foods recommended to the public for their purity and for their other virtues by Dr. Kellogg, of the Battle Creek Sanitarium, the foremost food expert of America. The first four are breakfast foods, the last is the best known substitute for tea or coffee. Cut out this list for reference.

The inhabitants of Martinique have become treasure-hunters, and spend much time in digging in the ruins caused by the eruption of Mount Pelée in hope of finding gold and other treasure lost at that time.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

—Miss May Goodhue, of Port Stanley, is visiting friends in London for a week.

—Miss Ida Barker, Huron street, Stratford, is spending a week with London friends.

—Mrs. Petrie, of Simcoe, is having a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Badenach, in this city.

—The Lenten services held in the Episcopal Church at St. Mary's last evening were conducted by the Bishop of Huron.

—Rev. Dr. Ross, of St. Andrew's Church, will conduct services in the Glasgow Presbyterian Church this evening in preparation for communion.

—Mr. William Oke, of the Semi-Ready, of Windsor, formerly of this city, is to move to Montreal in a day or two, to take a responsible position in the warehouse of the firm there.

—The Young Women's Christian Association of this city is applying to the Ontario Legislature for an act of incorporation, which will exempt their building and land from taxation.

—Mary Jane Gibb, a wealthy landowner of Elms Township, Perth County, died some weeks ago without having made a will. On the application of her surviving children, Judge Barron, of Stratford, appointed the Canada Trust Company, of this city, administrators.

—A very enjoyable social in the form of "An Evening with Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" was held last night in the Southern Congregational Church. Readings from Mrs. Hegan-Rivie's books, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Lovey Mary," were given by Mrs. Southwell, and Misses Downes, Charles, Stewart and Parry. Vocal selections were very acceptably rendered by Mrs. Cockin, Mrs. Griffiths, Miss Munn and Mrs. Effinger.

JEFFREY—GOLDSMITH.

A quiet wedding took place recently, when Miss Grace Goldsmith, daughter of Mr. Thomas Goldsmith, of the east side road, was married to Mr. Geo. Jeffrey, of London township. Rev. Mr. McKenzie, of the Christian Church, performed the ceremony.

MR. RADCLIFFE'S LECTURE.
The lecture upon the "Idylls of the King" (Tennyson), which was to have been delivered by Principal S. J. Radcliffe before the Local Council of Women, recently, but which was postponed on account of his visit to the United States, will be given on Thursday, March 23.

DR. BETHUNE LECTURES.
A large audience enjoyed and profited by the lecture given by Rev. Dr. Bethune in St. James' Episcopal Church lecture room last evening, his subject being "The works of God seen in the wonderful and in the destructive insects." The learned lecturer illustrated his remarks with enlightening views.

OPPOSED TO PROPOSED SYSTEM.
At the meeting of the Hackett Orange Lodge, the following resolution was unanimously adopted and ordered to be forwarded to the Hon. C. S. Hyman and C. S. Hyman, to do all in his power to maintain the great principle of self-government, which is the cornerstone of British liberty." E. H. Johnston, W. M.; J. Showler, Recording Secretary.

A LUCRATIVE JOB.
William Mason, having refused to accept the janitorship of the Quebec street school, because of the fact that the board of education decided to do away with the house which has in the past been used by the janitor, No. 2 committee last night appointed J. V. Crocker to the vacant position.

Announcement will be made shortly of his engagement to a Boston belle, who has been present at each day's racing this winter.

Accompanied by her father, she visits the track and backs anything Wonderly rides. Her commissions have not been large enough to interest the bookmakers' rolls, but the improvement in Wonderly's work was quickly noticed. Inspired by knowing that his movements were watched by his sweetheart, the jockey has really outdistanced Hildebrand, Henry and other stars.

WONDERLY TO WED.
A dispatch from Hot Springs, Ark., says: "Jockey Wonderly's recent success at Oaklawn, which has been accompanied by the most brilliant work seen on the part of a race horse in many days, has been the subject of much comment, and only today was the secret divulged. Wonderly will wed. Announcement will be made shortly of his engagement to a Boston belle, who has been present at each day's racing this winter.

they learned of Mrs. Beebe's serious illness. Death was caused by pneumonia. The late Mrs. Beebe was a city missionary in Ithaca and was much beloved by the poor, being known as "Sister Beebe." When she had spent 25 years in the service she was given with a purse of $500 by her many friends in that city. She was accustomed to pay frequent and extended visits to this city during the past quarter of a century. The remains will be buried in Ithaca.
