MARKET WAS SLOW DEMAND FOR HAY LIGHT

Oressed Pork Fairly Firm-Butchers Paying High Price for Veal.

Things were very quiet in market cir-les this morning, and there was very les this morning, and there was very ittle moving in any line.

The demand for hay has abated somethat and this morning's supply did not to off very fast. About twenty loads were brought in and sold slowly from Only one load of oats was in this mornrg and sold at unchanged prices. Oats are quoted from $1 20 to $1 32 a cwt. Dressed pork was fairly firm at $12 50 There are indications that the price will go up next week. The butchers are paying high prices for good carcasses of yeal. For an extra good carcass $10 a cwt was paid yesterday, but the majority of good quality are going from $9 to $9 50 a cwt. were no deliveries of butter of egg; this morning and prices remain A big Saturday market is looked for
