What promises to be a big factor in the winter sport program of London was launched last night at the armories, when Garrison Athletic Association was formed, which will provide basketball, indoor baseball and hookey for the various militia units with head-marters in the city.

for the various militia units with head-quarters in the city.

An executive was elected last evening and committees formed of the unit representatives will act with this body in the different games undertaken.

The first game to get attention will be indoor baseball, which flourished as one of the leading winter pastimes before the war. Eight units have intimated their intentions of putting in teams for this league. Basketball will follow right after and then hockey.

BRANTFORD, Nov. 1.—The Brantford Golf Club championship for 1921 was played off by Iden Champion, last year's titleholder, against John Lewis, in a 36-hole match, resulting in a win for the latter. This makes three important victories for Lewis during the year, viz., the Webling Shield, the Cockshutt Cup, the club championship and the Hardy Cup, which goes with it. Lewis was also in the finals for the Hamilton Club championship, but was defeated in a close match by Fritz Martin, an ex-champion of Canada.

DECIDE EARLY ON ALLAN CUP TRY

Varsity Goes in O. H. A.; Mc-Gill and Queen's in Intercollegiate.

TORONTO. Nov. 1.—Under the new rules of the C. A. H. A. a college team playing in two associations must declare before the season begins which league it will play down to the Allan Cup. Varsity will play in both the O. H. A. and Intercollegiate, and should they win the Ontario Association title they will represent that association in the Allan Cup games, even should they win the Intercollegiate series again this winter. McGill will withdraw from the Montreal City League and will confine its playing to the Intercollegiate. The withdrawal of the McGill team from the city league will leave a vacancy for which an application will be made by the University of Montreal Hockey Club. Queen's will play in the Intermediate O. H. A. and senior Intercollegiate, and will likely declare to qualify by the Intercollegiate route.

After being five times champions of the O. H. A. intermediate series Collingwood may not have an intermediate team this season. The juniors will, however, be in the game with a strong line-up and should uphold the honor of the old gold and blue.
