LAUNCH LIBERAL CLUB IN SARNIA

Organization Formed by Young Reformers Is Formally Opened.

KING SENDS GREETINGS

Enthusiasm rrevails When New Body Holds Inaugural Meeting.

Special to London Advertiser. SARNIA, April 6.-Three times postponed through unforseen circumstances, the newly-organized West Lambton Young Liberal Club was formally opened tonight, the occasion being marked by a social gathering of several hundred prominent Liberals of the city, including a number of visiting friends. Congratulatory speeches by Thomas H. Cook, one of the leading figures in Liberalism locally for many years; John Hayne, and other prominent Liberals were made to the younger element who were responsible for the organization of the club. In his address, Cook expressed appreciation of the need of some such organization for the upholding of the cause, and for the promotion of social intercourse among the Liberals of community. He predicted a notable future for the club

Premier Sends Greetings. Senator F. F. Pardee was unavoidably absent, having been called to Ottawa on business, but he left a message of good-will for the occasion, and a similar message was eceived from Premier King and from other notables.

President J. R. Donohue, Arthur M. Leliel, Harry M. Taylor and others replied suitably.

The evening was pleasantly passed, euchre and music being diversions, while a number of Liberal ladies exerted themselves with splendid results to provide refreshments for the

The club is the premises formerly occupied as the Tea Kettle Inn, on North Front street. They are spacious and comfortable, consisting of large sitting and reading-room that will accommodate easily 100 people, and a card and billiard-room, with a third room available as a kitchen. The furnishings are of wicker work, and as the quarters have been recently decorated in a pleasant color scheme, they present a very cosy and inviting appearance

The West Lambton Young Libera Club came into existence recently following a "get together" meeting held on Jan. 31, of a number of prominent Liberal workers of the The need for a club was felt not only by the younger element of the party supporters, but by a very welcome sprinkling of veterans, who readily offered their support to the coming stalwarts of the Liberal party in the West Lambton con-stituency. A decision was quickly reached to the effect that the organization be directed and operated by the younger element, but with the honorary association of the older
