BRANTFORD, Aug. 8.—Saginaw fell upon the Brants today and gathered in a totol of 18 runs, nearly a league record. Brantford never got started, with Herman Schwartie pitching at top form, and the Aces won by an 18—1 score. Three pitching duel between Feigart and Bullard, even though the latter didn't seem to wake up to the fact that there was a duel on until half way through the piece.

The game hadn't any more than got nicely started when Brown raised a fuss over being struck out, and his boss, another Powell, and Jackson, Flint hurler, also took a part in the controversy. The umps gave all three orders they were to meet the late customers at the gate on their way out, but along about the middle of the game he heard familiar voices coming from the bleachers, and he call for the police to put on the eviction act.

Start Run-Getting. he Vehics got two hits and a walk a run in the second, but Young's for a run in the second but Young's high pop allowed two more hits in the fourth to go to waste, Luce and Wotell siring these. Stimpson provided the feature catch of the season to open the flith, taking a one-armed swan dive after Monty's liner, and sliding his length with his one hand holding the ball, and the Londoners then went out in their half and evened the count. Richardson, after popping up a sw nging bunt, which James at first dropped,

The Flinters went out ahead in the sen. Young being safe on Richardson's third bobble. James singled. Feigart grounded out but Morehart bounced one off Bullard's shins, and Malmquest lost the cushion shot. Young scoring.

This spurred the locals to interrupt Mister Feigart's pleasant afternoon, and Malmquest singled, was sacrificed to second and wild pitched to third. From this vantage point he hesitated to carry out his vantage point he hesitated to carry out his part of a hit and run play, and Feigart hesitated between third and first and Churry was safe. Carmen's single to left scored Churry.

The Unusual.

The Unusual.

Bullard whifted Luce and Bodecker to start the seventh, and Wotell was dyadheaded. He was called out stealing second, but while he and Malmquest were getting disentangled, the ball rolled away and he reversed his decision. Wotell walked over second, but when he came to Richardson with the ball was standing on the bag.

James, in the eighth, crashed a grounder down at Richardson, who threw wild. James continuing on to second, was pegged out by Churry, who had backed up the play. The Unusual.

Apparently the united stand taken by the other clubs against the transfers applied for has not been shaken, and they are ready to oppose the granting of any asked for, not only on the grounds that it is illegal, but because of the tactics used to force the issue, and possibly a wide-open split in the ranks of the London and District just in mid-season when soccer is enjoy-

The St. Andrews Club has already protested to the O. F. A. against the transfers being granted.
