Walter Johnson Meets Second Loss of Series As Giants Pound Out 6-2 Win

OLD MASTER GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT BEFORE CANNONADE OF SAFE BLOWS RATTLED OFF BATS OF McGRAWMEN

GROH'S UNDERSTUDY STAR OF GAME

New York, Oct. 8 .- Walter Johnson, the "old master," buckled on his arm today in a fir.al fight for the glory of world's series victory that he has sought for eighteen years, but fate with the mighty bats of his foe turned him back. Unleashing a furious, ruthless attack, the New York Giants battered the great veteran into defeat for the second straight time, captured the fifth game of the series from the Senators by a score of 6 to 2, and left tonight for Washington with the 1924 world's championship within their reach.

The Giants, coming back today with the powerful type of attack that carried the Senators to triumph yesterday, now hold a formidable edge of three to two n games. They need but one more victory to clinch the series and give their leader, John McGraw his fourth baseball crown and a new major league record. The forces of McGraw, who shares the present record of three world's series victories with Connie Mack and his Athletics, are heavy favorites tonight to one. Miller went out to Terry unvictories with Connie Mack and his Athletic, are most spectacular battles, for assisted. today they spiked Washington's big gun, tesources for the rest of the fight. If Art Nehf, McGraw's brilliant south-paw, who was prevented from starting today's game by a thumb bruise, sustained in his victory over Johnson on the opening day, is able to take the mound tomorrow, the Giants will have an excellent prospect of ending the series. If not, or if Nehf fails, the decision will go to the seventh game, which will also be played in Washington

Gallant Figure.

Through the smoke of today's conflict, Johnson stood out as a gallant but tragic figure, one of the most tragic baseball has even known. Another outpouring of 50,000 fans braving the chilliest day of the series, came chiefly in the hope of seeing Johnson hang up his first world series victory. Their sympathies, which have been with the Senators throughout the New York zames of the series, were particularly evident for Johnson. They cheered him to the echo in the early part of the game, but as it wore on and Johnson's defeat seemed inevitable, they became quieter, realizing that "Big Barney," one of the game's greatest idols, was taking the bitterest setback of his career.

Johnson's famous fast ball, which had forced the Giants to twelve bitterly contested innings before they won the opening game, held no terrors today. The National league champions pounded "Barney" for thirteen safe blows and Gallant Figure, nched three of them in each or rd fifth and eighth innings, by did all their scoring.

one result when Johnson first broke into the big leagues in 1906. Lindstrom, who took the place of the veteran Heinic Groh, at third base when the latter was injured, smashed out four hits in five times at bat. We are now in position to beat the Senators with more ease. They have made himself a bulwark of the national game of the U. S. until he have made himself a bulwark of the national game of the U. S. until he had so as much of the honest, sporting personality that made ad still makes Christy Mathewson's name synonymous with all that is best delean in the pastime; to have done all this with a perennial tail-ender Walter Johnson's wonderful achievement.

And yet with all this behind him, fate denies him the chance of winning least one of two starts in the first and only world's series in which he er participated. The dry statistics will show that it was base hits that nied him this one other achievement, which every fan, even the most rabid ant fan, if any, hoped he would be granted. If Justice is blindfold, the Ossie Bluege again did a good job at short, filling Peckinpaugh's shoes acceptably, but the Washington infield was a little weakened by not having Bluege at third. Miller lacks experience, and while he tried hard it could be seen that he did not feel easy in the job. He had many chances to handle, at that.

A feature of this series that has impressed me is that in all the expertopinions, spoken or written, I have seen no one criticize either of the catchers. In fact, Gowdy and Ruel both have been so steady that they have worked like machines. A lot of nice things should be said for those two players.

Woodstock, Oct. 8.—The lid was pried off in the local rugby season this afternoon when Woodstock collegiate defeated Norwich high school II to I in a game which was featured by brilliant running on the part of the local back field. In spite of the loss of seven of last year's regulars, the locals appear to have a snappy aggregation, and they made gains almost at will against the Norwich line. Loose handling of the ball at critical moments was responsible for the lowness of the score.

Scalisi uncorked a 40-yard run in the first quarter to score the first touch. There was no further scoring until the third quarter, when Norwich got a single point, as Scalisi fumbled behind the line and sent the ball into touch in goal. In the last quarter, Scalisi broke off for 60 yards, and Lockhart followed this by a 40-yard run for a touch.

Balley kicked to the deadline for the final point.

The lineup: Woodstock—Halves, Lockhart, Scalisi Woodstock—Halves, Lockhart, Scalisi and Bailey; quarter Stevenson; fiving wing, stuart; snap, Ross; insides, Carrand Milburn; middles, Gender and McLeod outside, Wright and Hammond; spares, Sinclair Martin and Kellett.

Norwich—Halves Meldrum, Taylor and Maedel; quarter, Moles; flying wing, Kent; snap, Kendall; insides Thompson and Palmer; middles, Bishop and Burrell; outsides, Moore and Kinsie; spare, Kerr.

The things that struck me most today as I saw the Giants climb in front again, one game from another world's championship, were:
First—The picture of a most marvelous hall player coming, and one equally as marvelous going. The kid Lindstrom, born at the tinie when Walter Johnson born started pitching, faced the old master—the really is that—and led the mattack. Even though we were fighting outside and inside ourselves to land that same. I actually felt sorry for Johnson me. To me it is pathetic, the should wait these long years and then fall down when he had a chance to will keep the player. It is not of the fortunes or misfortunes of bases ball cond—We saw a record hit inside Segrounds. The world's series or any other game never saw a line drive like that made by Terry, both for distack and for speed. While we had have had a decident of the same to the Johnson of old. He knew it as well as we did. He was lucky that we didn't set wice as many hits. Walter didn't be eyeless and partially deaf into the bargain.

MERELY AT RUMOR STAGE.

Persistent rumors that some of the district's amateur mitt wielders have decided to turn pro. this season still lack official confirmation from the parties most concerned. A rumor says that Cy Pook will join the simoleon earners, At is also said that Pete Laing, convertible wrestler and boxer, will also turn the lock on his cabinet of watches, medals and whatnots received in two seasons of box-fighting in three-round spasms. Several local boys are understood to be considering jumping into the paid performer class.
