UPPER CANADA FURNITURE COMPANY.

FLAUNTING VICE.

The Great Western railway company want to erect a new station at the foot of Simcoe street. The city solicitor gives his opinion that the city can only grant the permission by proceeding to close up the street, which is of course out of the question. Otherwise the new station would be an obstruction and can be removed as such. The only thing the city could do is to take action in the matter and let the company take the risk. The board of works yesterday decided to adopt this course.

NEW G.W.R. STATION.

After a desperate struggle the villain accomplished his vile purpose—Brought to Toronto Jail. The inhabitants of the village of Sutton were startled on Monday night by the news of a dastardly outrage on a young woman named Mary Deane (aged 23) by two men named Edward Keating and John Thayer, aged 21 and 35 years respectively. The latter is a married man, and succeeded upon as a bad character. The two men were arrested the same night by County Constables Joseph and Richard Sheppard, and brought before Justice Henry Frieser, W.M. Henry and Donald McDonald yesterday morning for trial. The woman testified that she started home from Sutton about 8 o'clock Monday night, and when crossing the Lake Simcoe railway. Keating ran out from the bush, grabbed hold of her, and after a terrific scuffle threw her down and succeeded in violating her person, which he made off. She got up, but before she had gone ten yards Thayer, who was secreted in the immediate vicinity, seized her. She screamed, fought and succeeded in frustrating the villain's intentions. She then wended her way back to the village, and on account of the darkness, she was followed by Thayer. When Keating appeared in court yesterday morning his face presented a horrible sight, whole pieces of flesh being torn out and blood oozing from the various cuts. It is evident that the woman stoutly resisted his evil intentions. Thayer induced Keating to follow the woman with him and that he (Thayer) was to wait till Keating got through with her. The prisoners, who were defended by John Patsone, were committed for trial and will appear before Judge Mackenzie at the next quarter sessions. Thayer was allowed out on bail of two sureties of $200 each and himself in $400. Keating was brought to Toronto last night by Constable Joseph Sheppard and lodged in jail. Keating is the only son of a widowed mother and has always been looked upon as an industrious young man.

BOARD OF WORKS NOTES.

The Markham street sewer was postponed for a week. The solicitor is to have a form of specification and contract ready by next meeting. The engineer was ordered to prepare plans and specifications for the extension of Eastern avenue. A proposition by the auditors, that the inspectors should be paid monthly, was not entertained by the board. The board yesterday decided to leave the street railway route open until spring. Mr. Dowling has written to A.H. Mitchell that he was mistaken in saying that his name was not attached to the bond for the College avenue sewer. Work on East street block pavement was ordered to be stopped yesterday. Work on the Wellesley street sewer will be proceeded with for the winter. Last summer the wages of the corporation laborers, foremen and inspectors were raised until the 1st November or December. The board yesterday decided to resume the former wages at the time specified. On motion of A.D. Baxter it was ordered that a sidewalk be laid on Harbor street, near Lippincott, in front of Mr. Kerr's block of new houses. The money comes out of the $2600 appropriation. The board fixed the following penalties for the contractors for the sewers named: Shawbourne street $20; Clyde, Spadina, Winchester, Renfrew, Dalhousie, Trinity, Carleton Place, Wellington and Niagara streets $10. The city commissioner has been ordered to take proceedings to remove the obstruction of the sewer on Ontario street. An old lady is strenuously opposing the pulling down of the fence by the corporation officials. Permission was asked to tunnel Yonge street for a sewer at Sparrow's court just above King street. The engineer did not think it advisable to break up the Yonge street block pavement, and he thought it still more objectionable to make a tunnel. The matter was referred to him. A communication was read from a number of residents of Strachan street, agreeing that the surplus on the sewer be paid into the account of unexpected difficulties in excavation. They thought they had no power to do anything with the surplus but to repay it to the corporation, who might then do with it as they pleased with it. On motion of A.D. Curly the executive committee were instructed to repay the surplus accordingly. The treasurer yesterday submitted a statement showing the amount of the surplus on the Ontario street sewer, as follows: Between Queen and Bech streets, no surplus; between Bech and Carleton, $183.69; A.D. Curly not being quite satisfied with these figures, the treasurer was asked to prepare a new statement, which should also show the amount to which each ratepayer was entitled.

COOKE'S CHURCH.

A few congregations to be formed—The First Services to be Held Next Sunday in Temperance Hall. As might have been expected, the result of the recent decision of a majority of the congregation of Cooke's church in favor of introducing instrumental music into the service has been the accession of a number of those who were in the minority. Some of them no doubt are influenced by conscientious scruples; with others the feeling is that expressed by one of the members, "that they desired to worship as their fathers had done before them. The organ is not the only objection, the use of hymn-books being another point of difference. The first services will be held in Temperance hall next Sunday at the usual hours. The minister has not yet been selected. It is probable that dissatisfied members of other congregations besides that of Cooke's church may attend them; but the general opinion spoken to expressed no doubt, that the members of the church who were present at the service, and who were desirous to worship in the old-fashioned way to do so.

THE GALLANT TENTH.

Col. Grasset's Address to the Men—Punctuality Wanted—Two New Companies Promised. The Tenth Grenadiers mustered last night to the number of about 200, for the last drill of 1921-22. The battalion was put through several maneuvers by the colonel, which were well performed. The column was then closed, and Col. Grasset made a few remarks to the regiment as follows: "The regiment has now been in existence, only about eight months since its reorganization, and I must express my thanks to the officers and men for their assistance in enabling me to make the battalion perfect. The officers have spared neither money nor time in seconding my endeavors. The non-commissioned officers have proved themselves efficient and attentive in their drill, and to a great extent, have been very active as I should have liked. I may state that the winter drill has been done; the winter head dress was procured at the expense of the officers, and the winter uniform clothing, and the city by an issue of new great coats of $600 for new head dresses. I therefore hope that the men in connection with the winter drill will be satisfied in the future. That is all I want of them until noon. I hope as many as possible will attend recruit classes through the winter, and bring their friends with them, that the ranks may be made complete at the beginning of the next drill. I shall then recommend to have every reason to believe that this will be granted. Mike Maloney, Dennis O'Connell and John O'Connell were summoned to appear before Mr. Justice Doel yesterday for being implicated in the cooking mania at Victoria Maloney, who was fined $10 and costs or thirty days in jail. He paid the fine, a warrant was issued for the arrest of John O'Connell, but not of Dennis, as the summons had been improperly served on him.

CONCRETE AT THE ASYLUM.

A musical concert was given at the asylum last night by the choir of the Spadina Avenue Methodist church. The asylum being very full at present the concert was largely attended. "Softly falls the shadow of evening" was very nicely rendered by the choir. This was followed by "She who is called by the desert" and "The songs of 'Alone in the desert' and 'The day is done' are very fine and were very nicely rendered by Mrs. Spencer, but the selections are better fitted for a more intelligent audience. The solo "The woodymph's call" by Miss Lottie Maloney was very well rendered and loudly applauded by the audience. Mr. Johnston made a happy selection when he chose the well-known song "Her bright smile haunts my thought" for on every face could be seen the expression of interest, throughout the whole piece. But the songs which were most appreciated were the comic songs "A hornbill" and "The cork leg," and "The holy friar" sung by Mr. Rugg. These songs are so light in their nature that their meaning quickly flashes the weakest member of the audience. The concert was concluded with the National anthem, which was sung with great vim and intelligence by some of the inmates.

PERSONS AND THINGS.

It is rumored that Rev. Father Stafford of Lindsay will be appointed vice-general of the diocese of Kingston. The ladies of Quebec are proverbial for their beauty, and the handsomest ladies of Quebec are those of Irish blood. Erasmus Wilton, president of the Royal college of surgeons, the great authority on cutaneous disorders, who brought Clostridia's needle to England, has been knighted. Rev. Dr. Potts has received from the St. James street Methodist church, Montreal, a cordial invitation to become its pastor. This is an old and favorite church of Dr. Potts'. Hamilton Times: We are decidedly opposed to the proposed grant of a bonus to the Ottawa civil servants of the Dominion.

ST. MATTHEW'S, RIVERSIDE.

A thoroughly successful missionary meeting was held last night in St. Matthew's church, Riverside, the first that had ever been held in the building. There was a large attendance, the interest being maintained to the last. The chair was taken by Rev. Ed. Ransford, missionary in charge, who after opening the proceedings with usual devotional exercises introduced the speakers, the Rev. J. G. Lewis, rector of Grace church, and Mr. John Hague of Kirkville, whose addresses were characterized by great force and impressiveness. The choir under the direction of Mr. Stappella sang with devotion and expression. A liberal collection in aid of the mission fund of the diocese was taken up. It may be mentioned as an instance of good feeling that the usual weekly meeting of the Congregationalists on the Mill road was put off, in order that all might have an opportunity of attending St. Matthew's church.

PHOTOS AT THE ROYAL.

The very funny Harrisons gave their grand performance at the Royal opera house last night to another crowded house. The show is full of snap and vivacity, and is highly enjoyable. Photos ought to be taken of the two, who are in the line of the show, and for the last time this evening.

A GROUNDED HUMOR.

A rumor was started in legal circles yesterday that Judge Mackenzie had resigned. His honor, when spoken to by a World reporter last night, said he had not resigned, and had expressed no such intention.

PICTURESQUE PORK.

A luscious picture of no means an uncommon matter, and which marks an uncommon case of birth marking, is as follows: Mr. W. F. Awde of St. Andrew's market about a week ago purchased some pork, and on cutting up one of the animals Mr. Awde (who has an eye for the artist) noticed between the skin and the ribs on either side the shape of a child respectively. He examined the matter a little, and found that the picture, which was the same in shape as that of the animal, was the same as that of the child. He then cut up the other side of the animal, and the same shape was noticed. He then cut up the other side of the animal, and the same shape was noticed. He then cut up the other side of the animal, and the same shape was noticed.
