

The C O N T E N T S.

Merin's Journey to the Mines in Hungary; with an Account of his Observations made there, in relation to them, and subterraneous Passages in General. Translated out of Latin. p. 762.

Ten Rhyne's Account of the Cape of Good Hope and the Hottentots, the barbarous Natives of that Country. p. 769.

Beland's Observations on the Streights of Gibraltar and the Tides and Currents. p. 782.

A