Hubbard and Chandler. Dr. Aikins, Dr. Geikie, Dr. Butler, and Rev. Leroy Hooker, represented sister institutions and were the guests of the faculty. Letters of regret were read from Hon. G. W. Ross, Mayor Clarke, Rev. Dr. Kellogg, Vice-Chancellor Mulock, Principal Kirkland, Dr. Beers, and other prominent men who were unable to be present.

After full justice had been done to the excellent menu that had been provided, President A. W. Thornton, delivered a short address in which he discussed various questions of interest to dentists, dealing chiefly with such as have reference to professional etiquette and practice. Whether or not Mr. Thornton had by mistake, taken a mouthful of pepper-sauce just before rising, is not known, but certain it is that his remarks were very pointed. The toast to the "Learned Professions" was then briefly responded to by Rev. Leroy Hooker, and Dr. Fisher of Warton, after which Dr. Willmott proposed the toast to "Sister Institutions" in his usual happy style. Dr. Aikins in reply, spoke of the good feeling which should and does prevail between medical men and dentists, and pointed out how they might render each other much valuable assistance. Dr. Geikie spoke of the growing variety of dentists, and created much amusement. He had carefully watched the interests of the college from its babyhood, and trusted that it would have a glorious youth and manhood. Dr. Stuart, of the Faculty, then proposed the toast to "The Dental Profession" which was responded to by Dr. Chas. S. Butler, of Buffalo, who delivered the address of the evening. (See page 18.)

The toast to "The Faculty" was responded to by Drs. J. B. and W. E. Willmott. The former said that he was proud of the College and felt that he had good reason to be so. He was pleased with the students of 1889 and 1890, and complimented them on their ability. Dr. W. E. Willmott, as the youngest member of the faculty, was warmly received by the students. He spoke briefly and ended by wishing the students success in the spring. Representatives from the students of Trinity, and Toronto Medical Schools, the College of Pharmacy, and Toronto University, were then called upon, and all responded. Short and pithy address were also delivered by the dental students themselves, Messrs. Mills and
