A COMMON TROUBLE

Thousands Suffer From it Without Knowing its Real Character.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think that their nerves are to blame, are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines and spring remedies; the real seat of mischief is lost sight of; the stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others, the kidneys are affected; in others, the bowels are troubled, with loss of flesh and appetite, with the accumulation of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

Mr A. W. Sharper of No 61 Prospect street, Indianapolis, Ind. writes as follows: "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few lines regarding the new and valuable medicine, Stuart's dyspepsia tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years, have used various patent medicine and other remedies without any favorable result. They sometimes give temporary relief until the effects of the medicine wore off. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a bookkeeper, with little physical exercise, but I am glad to state that the tablets have overcome all these obstacles, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better and am better in every way. The above is written not for notoriety, but is based on actual facts." Respectfully yours, A. W. Sharper, 61 Prospect street, Indianapolis, Ind.

It is safe to say that Stuart's dyspepsia tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headaches. Nobody who sees Mrs. Mary M. Peabody, of 42 Water Street, Haverhill, Mass., to-day, will find it easy to believe that she has passed her 63d year and has endured more suffering than ordinarily comes to the lot of woman. How she regained her health and happiness is best told in her own words. She says: "I suffered from female weakness and troubles peculiar to women. I had no strength and no ambition, and didn't care whether I lived or died. I was unable to dress myself. My friends did not think that I would live, and I became afraid that I was going into consumption. Last July I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I began to get better at once, my appetite increased wonderfully and I think that I have gained almost 30 pounds since I began taking the pills. I am now enjoying the best of health, eat heartily and sleep soundly—all due to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"There are many facts about my case that I do not care to have published, but I will gladly answer any woman who cares to write me about the subject." (Signed) MARY M. PEABODY. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 8th day of September, 1898. THOMAS W. QUINCY, Justice of the Peace. At druggists or direct from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.
