WEBSTER
UNABRIDGED AND THE STANDARD AND THE BEST

ANCIENT AND MODERN. DON'T BE DUPED.

A so-called "Webster's Unabridged Dictionary" is being offered to the public at a very low price. The body of the book, from A to Z, is a cheap reprint, page for page, of the edition of 1847, which was in its day a valuable book, but, in the progress of language for over forty years, has been completely superseded. It is now reproduced, broken type, errors and all, by a photographic process, is printed on cheap paper and flimsily bound. It is advertised to be the substantial equivalent of "an eight to twelve dollar book," while in fact it is a literal copy of a book which in its day was retailed for about $5.00, and that book was much superior in paper, print, and binding to this imitation, and was then the best Dictionary of the time instead of an antiquated one. A brief comparison, page by page, between the reprint and the latest and enlarged edition will show the great superiority of the latter. No honourable dealer will allow the buyer of such to suppose that he is getting the Webster which to-day is accepted as the Standard and The Best.

There are several of these reprints, differing in minor particulars, but, don't be duped, the body of each is a literal copy of the 1847 edition.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY.

The New York Times says: "Only those who are ignorant of the great advances that have been made in dictionaries are likely to buy this reprint at any price."

The American Bookseller of N. Y., says: "The etymologies are utterly misleading, and naturally so; for when the Webster of 1847 was issued Comparative Philology was in its cradle. The definitions are imperfect, requiring condensation, re-arrangement and additions. The vocabulary is defective, some of the commonest words of to-day, especially scientific terms, for which a dictionary is most often consulted, being entirely absent. In not one of these three prime requisites of a dictionary is the Webster reprint a trustworthy guide, or, rather, it is a misleading one. This 'reprint' is not intended for intelligent men. It is made expressly to be foisted by all the arts of the book canvasser on those who have been precluded from a knowledge of what developments lexicography has undergone during the last forty-two years. This is the cruellest feature of this money-making enterprise."

The Buffalo Christian Advocate says: "DON'T BE DUPED. Thousands are, or are likely to be, by the flashy, fraudulent advertisements of 'The Original Webster's Unabridged Dictionary,' which is offered for three or four dollars. If any of our readers wish to invest in a purchase which they will be likely afterward to regret, they will do so after being duly notified."

The Journal of Education, Boston, says: "Teachers cannot be too careful not to be imposed on, since the very things which make a dictionary valuable in school are wanting in this old-time reprint. Any high-school dictionary which can be purchased for a dollar and fifty cents is worth more for school use than this."

Many other prominent journals speak in similar terms, and legitimate publishers write us in strong condemnation of this attempt to foist an obsolete book on the public.

The latest and the best, which bears our imprint on the title page, has over 2,000 pages with illustrations on almost every page.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM, OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

A skin of beauty is a joy forever.
Purifies as well as beautifies the skin. No other cosmetic will do it. Removes tan, pimples, freckles, moth-patches, rash and skin diseases, and every blemish on beauty, and defies detection. It has stood the test of 37 years, and is so harmless we taste it to be sure the preparation is properly made. Accept no counterfeit of similar name. The distinguished Dr. L. A. Sayer said of a lady of the haut ton (a patient): "As you ladies will use them, I recommend 'Gouraud's Cream' as the best harmless of all the skin preparations." One bottle will last six months, using it every day. Also Poudre Subtile removes superfluous hair without injury to the skin. FRED T. HOPKINS, proprietor, 47 Bond Street, running through to Main Office, 37 Broad Street, New York. For sale by all druggists and fancy goods dealers throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe. A BRIDE'S CONFESSION

"Yes, dear, I am married now, and George and I are keeping house in the loveliest flat on 64th St. Well, you see, we did get married some time ago. My health, you know, had for some time been very delicate, and Dr. Heav'ly told mamma that I would never follow poor, dear sister Bella, who died three years ago from a wasting disease. Dear George was almost crazy when mamma told him what the doctor said, and I nearly cried my eyes out, but one day I overheard that 'lovely Nelly Parker' say to her mother, 'I think that George Blavert is just too lovely for anything, and when the girl he's engaged to dies, and they say she is dying of a wasting disease, I would like to see her. I would like to be her and become Mrs. George Blavert; now just you wait and see.' This spring I noticed George seemed to be almost resigned to the idea that we should never be married; and the thought that that deceitful busy night get him after all he's done for me, and as you will see by my card, I am now Mrs. George Blavert. Do tell soon and let me introduce George to you; I am sure you will like him, he is so handsome, and as good as he is handsome. Good-by; be sure not to forget."
