

DEAN FARRAR'S NEW WORK

The Life of Lives

FURTHER STUDIES IN THE LIFE OF CHRIST

Cloth . 444 pages . Price, $1.50

FOR twenty-six years Farrar's "Life of Christ" has been before the public, and has enjoyed a widely popular sale. It has been translated into many languages and has been circulated throughout the whole world. It is, therefore, with no small pleasure we announce the publication in a Canadian edition of a work supplementary to the "Life of Christ," dealing not so much with the incidents of that matchless life as with subjects of high importance which the gospels suggest, and designed to deepen the faith and brighten the hope in Christ of all who read it.

GRIMSBY PARK

Historical Biographical and Descriptive

By HARRIET PHELPS YOUMANS

With 14 beautiful engravings

Paper, 25cts.; Cloth, 50cts. Postpaid

To the thousands who have visited Grimsby Park—those who remember it in the early years when, in August of every summer, the camp-meeting with its rough "tents" and flaring platform fires was wont to gather; and those who know it only as the delightful summer resort of the present day with its thousand and one attractions, intellectual and physical—to all these we recommend Mrs. Youmans' deeply interesting and entertaining brochure. Its graphic picture of the old-time camp-meeting in the woods is alone worth more than the price of the book.

The Bible Under Higher Criticism

A REVIEW OF CURRENT
THEORIES
ABOUT THE OLD TESTAMENT

By Rev. E. H. Dewart, D.D.

CLOTH - $1.00 NET - POSTPAID

The New York Homiletic Review says:

"Dr. Dewart goes straight to the mark, stating the chief conclusions of the rationalistic critics and the reasons for rejecting them and avoiding all subordinate side issues. Readers of the book will find in it the same qualities of clearness, directness and vigor that have characterized Dr. Dewart's articles in the Homiletic Review."

From the Methodist Magazine and Review:

"This is emphatically a book for the times—a book for plain men who know no language but their own. It shows that Biblical scholars, equally learned with the "Higher Critics," refuse to accept their negative theories. The book is written with all the old-time strength and clearness of one of the ablest thinkers on Biblical topics in the Dominion of Canada. It is the result of many years of study on these important problems. Dr. Dewart is not a man who lags behind the times in which we live. He writes with a full knowledge of the most advanced Biblical criticism."
