A., of which he is a member. He abouted the audience, at the chairman's suggestion, how to get rid of taxation, viz., follow the example of the Ontario Government. The mustcal part of the brogramma was given by the Misses Rollero, of Toronto, who sang with good affect in solos and duots. Mrs. W. Moore contributed a vocal selection of merit. The little Misses Mobonial and Hartt delighted the audience with their rendering of "Life's long dream is ore." The choruses and massive 57 a number of yor ig ladder and little girls were much enjoyed. Miss Ryan accompanied the solostas and Miss Moran the choirs. Bet. Dean Egan made a few remarks in his usual happy style.
