

Consumption Cured.
 Since 1870 Dr. Sner has sent year from this office the means of relief and cure to thousands afflicted with this disease. The correspondence necessitated by this work becoming too heavy for him, I came to his aid. He now feels constrained to relinquish it entirely, and has placed in my hands the formula of that simple vegetable remedy discovered by an East India missionary, and found so effective for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Diseases; also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints. Its remarkable curative powers have been proven in many thousand cases, and actuated by the desire to relieve suffering humanity, I gladly assume the duty of making it known to others. Address me with stamp, naming this paper, and I will mail you, free of charge, the recipe of this wonderful remedy, with full directions for its preparation and use, printed in German, French or English.—W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y. 16-1350w

THE AGRARIAN MOVEMENT IN ITALY.
 Rome, Aug. 1.—The Government is seriously impressed with the agrarian movement, which becomes more and more serious every day. The laboring class suffer immensely all over Italy. Only a few days ago the grave Gazzetta d'Italia said: "If in Italy Socialism, Internationalism and Nihilism are not organized as they are in Germany and Russia, we have here yet in the cities and in the country a large number of people who are merely guided by the desire of avoiding a present full of misery and a future still worse."

Dr. W. Armstrong, Toronto, writes: "I have been using Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda for Chronic Bronchitis with the best results. I believe it is the best emulsion in the market. Having tested the different kinds I unhesitatingly give it the preference when presenting for my consumptive patients, or for Throat and Lung affections."

THE DOMINION CABINET.
 Hon. Frank Smith arrived in Quebec last evening, and was sworn in as a member of the Dominion Government at the citadel this morning. By His Excellency the Governor-General, Mr. Smith will occupy seat in Ministry without portfolio, as did Mr. Blake in 1873-4, and more recently Hon. D. L. Macpherson, upon his first entrance into the Government. In this connection it may be interesting to recapitulate the offices of the Ministers:—Sir John McDonald, Premier and Minister of the Interior; Sir Charles Tupper, Minister of Railways; Sir Hector Langevin, Minister of Public Works; Sir Leonard Tilley, Minister of Finance; Hon. J. B. Pope, Minister of Agriculture; Hon. M. Bowell, Minister of Customs; Sir Alex. Campbell, Minister of Justice; Hon. D. L. Macpherson, President of the Council; Hon. A. W. McLaughlin, Minister of Marine and Fisheries; Hon. John Costigan, Minister of Inland Revenue; Hon. Jno. Carlin, Post Master-General; Hon. A. P. Caron, Minister of Militia; Hon. A. J. Chapleau, Secretary of State; Hon. Frank Smith, without portfolio.

Mr. G. W. Macaulay, Pavillon Mountain, B.C., writes:—"Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is the best medicine I ever used for Rheumatism. Nearly every winter I am laid up with Rheumatism, and have tried nearly every kind of medicine without getting any benefit, until I used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It has worked wonders for me, and I want another supply for my friends, &c."

AN ORPHAN'S JOURNEY.
 AN EXPLANATORY LABEL.
 A bright little lad of 9 years has just passed through the city on his way to England. His name is Samuel Brindle, and is unrecalled on his long journey. He built from Parker's Landing in Pennsylvania, but it appears that about a year ago he came to America with his father, who recently died. He was consequently left alone, without home or friends. The neighbors of the place, however, proposed to provide for his return to his mother. Railway and steamship tickets were bought and given to him, and he was put on board the train with a card sewed to his jacket having this inscription:—"Parker's Landing, Pa. This boy, Samuel Brindle, is going to his mother, Mary A. Brindle, Primrose Banks Mills, Old Odham, Lancashire, England, via Montreal, Canada, for Liverpool, England, per Canada Shipping Company, Beaver Line. Take care of him." The boy had in his possession what he started tickets from Buffalo to Montreal, and Montreal to Liverpool, but the one conveying the journey from Buffalo he had lost on the way. The police telegraphed to Parker's Landing and received a reply requesting them to forward the little traveler, and it would be made all right. He was accordingly sent on his way, and has lacked no friendly care on his long journey.

Musical Instruments, &c.

THE WEBER BABY GRAND. RECEIVED HOME.

"THE WEBER PIANO"

Is generally acknowledged the grandest instrument of music which has ever appeared in the household, or adorned the Lyric Stage. Its tones are pure and beautiful beyond all others. It is sweet, sympathetic and plaintive, or loud, grand and majestic, at the will of the performer. In its capacity to portray feeling, and in its wonderful power of expression, it stands absolutely without a rival. The duration of its tones, quick responsive action, and perfect mechanism, place it, in the estimation of all musical people, above and beyond all its competitors. For many years the "Weber" Piano was used only by the wealthy and musical aristocracy of the United States; but since the Philadelphia Exhibition, where it was first placed before the public in competition with the great makers of the world, the demand for it has been unprecedented. The first second-hand instrument of this make, offered at public competition in Montreal, though a square several years in use, realized $515.00. This was far above the price reached by any other piano, and shows that a good piano, like a good painting, will always command its price.

THE PROHIBITED JOURNAL. A few weeks ago Archbishop Taschereau, of Quebec, issued an episcopal order to his diocese, prohibiting the reading, talking or keeping of the paper known as Le Courrier des Etats-Unis under pain of excommunication. This step was taken on the grounds that this paper contained romances or stories of an immoral and irreligious character. His Lordship Bishop Moreau, of St. Hyacinthe, has also deemed it expedient to issue a similar mandement to the faithful of his diocese. His Lordship urges members of the church to avoid irreligious and immoral books and journals. It is these, he contends, which caused the ruin of the Old World, and which keeps it struggling in anarchy and revelation. He concludes as follows:—"Friends, Christians, see to it attentively that no impure or irreligious productions ever enter your homes, and let them never be put before the eyes of your children; for the moment your children find pleasure in reading promiscuous literature, they are lost to you and heaven. The mortal poison which they take would inoculate their whole being, and they would be led to the gratifying of most vile passions fanned within them by its never-fading light of God and His blessings; such immoral literature makes light of the life of sin they lead, and plunges into a terrible abyss of all sorts of miseries both for time and eternity. We appeal to you to-day in a spirit of charity. Attend to our voice, as representing the more authoritative one of the Holy Church, your mother; and obey it faithfully and with filial affection." The proprietors of Le Courrier des Etats-Unis, Messrs H P Sampaers & Co, have issued the following defence:—"Our attention has been called to a despatch from Montreal, Canada, published in your paper of 27th inst., in which Archbishop Taschereau is said to have condemned Le Courrier des Etats-Unis in a pastoral letter for having published 'infamous novels.' We will say that the Courrier des Etats-Unis, as a rule, takes no notice of attacks upon its management except when its honor and respectability are involved. In this instance, interested influences may have been brought to bear against us. No paper has at heart the cause of morality more than ourselves, and this we feel it our duty to express in unmistakable language. The Courrier des Etats-Unis is neither a religious nor an anti-religious publication. It strives to present in its columns, as far as possible, the best current literature. It takes its feuilletons not from the sensational journals, but from those papers that represent the weight of literary authority in France. The best criterion of its standing is to be deduced from the fact that the recent feuilletons published in the columns have been mostly reprinted from Conservative and religious journals, a list of which we append. We beg to offer an energetic protest against the ban under which we have been placed, and are obliged to attribute it either to an error or to an absolutely unjustifiable hostility. A LOSING JOKE. A prominent physician of Pittsburgh said jokingly to a lady patient who was complaining of her continued ill-health, and of his inability to cure her, "try Hop Bitters." The lady took it in earnest and used the Bitters, from which she obtained permanent health. She now laughs at the doctor for his joke, but he is not so well pleased with it, as it cost him a good patient.—Harrisburg Patriot.

A SOLEMN PROTEST. On the anniversary of the translation of the remains of Pope Pius IX. from the Vatican to San Lorenzo, His Holiness Leo XIII. received a committee of the Federazione Piana of the Catholic societies of Rome, which presented him with several volumes containing 80,000 signatures of people protesting against the savage insult perpetrated in Rome last year on this day. Among those present were the two Cardinals Jacobini, Chigi, Ledochowski, Nino, Mertel, Pecci and many prelates. The Pope, answering the address, read by Vice-President Count de Witten, deploring the public scandals of which Italy has been and is the theatre; deploring that the cross had been taken away from the capitol, and entreated Romans to cling to their faith. "No family Dyes were ever so popular as the Diamond Dyes. They never fail. The Black is far superior to logwood. The other colors are brilliant. DECORATION. The Rev. Don Giovanni Verita, a Tuscan priest of the diocese of Modigliana, has been decorated by King Humbert with the order of the Crown of Italy for having contributed to save Garibaldi in 1849, when hunted by the Austrians. "A presumption begins in ignorance and ends in ruin." On the other hand, the production of Kidney-Wort began with wise caution and scientific research, and it ends in restoring shattered constitutions and enervated men and women with health and happiness. "My tormented back" is the exclamation of more than one poor hardworking man and woman; do you know why it aches? It is because your kidneys are overworked and need strengthening, and your system needs to be cleansed of bad humors. You need Kidney-Wort.
