FOURTEEN DAYS IN A CAVE. THERETELE EXPERIENCE OF TWO MEN UNDER LOOK. OUT MOUNTAIN.

CHATTABOCGA, April 2 .- On St. Patrick's Day two men from Cincinnati, Charles Gower and Carist Schmitzen, entered the cave under Lookout Mountain, near this city, provided with a glass lan-tern, a bottle of coal oil, lunch, &c. The men had not been seen to come out of the cave, but the gate keeper supposed they did so while he was at dinner. The beauties of the cavern and its marvellous curl-orities had excited their ambition to explore it. Jeff Harper Emerson and Calvin Loslie recently from Indiana, to day entered the cave on an exploring expedition. When about three miles into the cavern they were startled by deep groans in close proximity to them. They hastened forward, and discovered the forms of two men lying prestrate on a shelf of rock. The men were unable to articulate a word, but could only give vent in sobs to their joy at resone. After being removed to the outside world, the men said that they entered the cave at 9 o'clock on the morning of March 16. They had only a small lantern, not intending to go far into the cave. After they had proceeded about three miles, Gower stumbled and fell. the lantern fell from his hand into the water. and the bottle containing the oil was broken. They had no other means of making a light. They groped their way back a few bundred feet, but found the undertaking useless, as they were in danger of failing over unseen precipices. They could hear the trickling of water, and crawled toward it, and by lowering their hats by means of strips torn from their clothing into the crevice they obtained a small supply of water from time to time. They remained at this spot about three days, and, driven to desperation by hunger, made another effort to escape their terrible doom. About the fith day they threw themselves down in hopeless decpair to meet their awful fate, and were unable to move from that time until rescued. when brought to this city the men presented a pitiable spectacle. The orders seemed most severe on Mr. Schmitzen. At times he is delirious. Late this evening physicians say that the men are doing as well as could be expected. By careful nursing their lives may be spared, but the chances are against them. Their entire sustenance during those fourteen days consisted of their scanty lunch and what water could be procured in

A LIFT FOR THE BARTHOLDI STATUE.

The famous statue to be erected in New York barbor would be vary quickly in place if all contributions to it were as munificent as that of the Travelers' Insurance Company of Hartford, no less than $1,700 given outright, besides paying for the distribution of a epecial press edition of a large picture of the statue to the entire press of the United States. We have received a copy of it, and it is worthy the character of the company, which is the highest praise that could be given.

THE MAHDI INTERVIEWED. The Arab text in the Abou Maddara gives an account of an interview of the editor of the Arab paper with the Mahdi. In the course of the interview Mohammed Ahmed

"What proves that I never pretended to be the Mahdi is that I am surrounded by the most illustrious shelks or Islam and by thousands of partisans who, instead of fighting by my side, would have abandoned me if I had put forward the claim attributed to me by my enemies. Gordon has been sent with 500,000 thalers to buy over my allies, as he succeeded in buying some Arab oblefs. But I swear, in the name of Allah, that, it Gordon falls into my hands, I will kill him and will distribute his money among the poorer hius-

animans who fight with me." "But," asked the interviewer, "what will you do in the event of the English arming

Indians and Abyssinians sgainst you?" "I have no fear of the Indians," was the reply. "Those who are Museulmans are with us. Those who are idolators are auxious to ilberate themselves from English tyrancy. As to the Abyssinians, not one of them would Eurvive."

" And what about the English?" "The sun will melt them. As to myself, if I do not succeed I will perish on the battle. field."

GRAIN ELEVATORS IN BUSSIA.

ST. PETEBEBURG, April 2 .- The final decision in regard to the proposed concession for the introduction of grain elevators into Russia by Russian, French and American capitalists has been postponed, although the council of the empire voted in favor of the proposal.

THE CHILLPERU TREATY. LIMA, April 4 .- The Secretary of Foreign Affairs replying to the protest of the Bitlish Government against the ratification of the treaty with Chili, said arrangements had been made for the protection of the rights of the Peruvian oreditors. He says that when negotiating the treaty with Peru he acted in virtue of the rights he possessed for self gov. ernment. The debts originated from loans effected with private parties, and have never assumed an international character. Peru owes nothing to England as the Government or State, and consequently the loans referred to cannot be made the subject of diplomatic interference. The trenty was ratified by Congress on March 8. Much excitement is evinced respecting the probable outcome of this action in Ohili. There is also much anxiety. LONDON, April 3 .- The fire yesterday originated in the printing house of Pardon & sons and quickly extended to the famous old Dolly's Chop House. This was the house of Faudel Phillips & Sons, importers of fancy goods. The large book bindery of Smith Bres, and the music publishing house of B. Williams, were destroyed. The damage is as great as that caused by the Wood street fire. The favorable direction of the wind saved St. Paul's Cathedral.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP CARBERRY. NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. April 3 .- The Right

Rev. Dr. Carberry, the newly appointed Bishop of Hamilton, arrived here this morn-ing at 9 o'clock, per New York Central en route for the new seat of his labers. He was met at the depot by a deputation of 15 from Hamilton, and after the interchange of congratulations the party boarded the connecting Grand Trunk train for Hamilton.
