

MISCELLANEOUS.

A formal presentation of prizes took place on Thursday evening in the spacious building of the Rideau Skating Club, where a large throng had gathered to see the rifle champions receive their rewards. Among those on the platform were Lt.-Col. Geo. A. Kirkpatrick, M.P., president of the association; Sir Adolphe Caron, Minister of Militia; Lieut.-General Sir Fred. and Lady Middleton, Hon. C. H. Tupper, Col. Walker Powell, Adjutant-General; Col. C. E. Panet, Deputy Minister of Militia; Col. Tilton, G.G.F.G.; Lieut.-Col. White, Ottawa; Lieut.-Col. Maunsell, D.A.G.; Lieut.-Col. John Macpherson, treasurer; Lieut.-Col. Thos. Bacon, secretary; Major Bond, Montreal; Capt. Mutton, Q.O.R.; Major Walsh, Ottawa; Major Toller, Guards; Capt. Sims, Vics.; Lieut. Macnachten, Cobourg Garrison Artillery. The proceedings opened with a speech from Col. Kirkpatrick, laudatory of the Canadian riflemen for their high scoring at home and for the distinguished victory achieved by their representatives at Wimbledon this year, whose crowning glory was the winning, on this the last occasion of their being offered at Wimbledon, of the Kolapore cups, which the Canadians had won the first year they were offered there. The first prizes to be distributed were those to the teams, the winners being paraded in full dress uniform and marched up as their names were called. Then the individual prize-winners were called up. The prizes were handed to the winners in turn by Sir Adolphe Caron, Sir Fred. Middleton, Lady Middleton (who presented the Caron Cup), Col. Kirkpatrick and others. In presenting the chief prize of the Dominion of Canada match, the most important concluded event of the meeting, Sir Adolphe Caron made an eloquent address, in which he warmly eulogized the Canadian militia for their devotion to duty whenever called upon, and the interest they had always taken in time of peace to prepare themselves for the serious duty they might be called upon to perform. He apologized for the absence of Sir John Macdonald, due, he said, to fatigue, the premier having spent the two previous nights intravelling to and from Port Hope, whither Sir Adolphe had accompanied him to assist in the unveiling of the monument to that brave soldier, Col. Williams.

An "at home" was given on Wednesday evening by Lieut.-Col. Tilton and officers of the G.G.F.G., in the officers' mess-room, to the officers of sister corps taken part in the D. R. A. matches. Among the guests present were Lieut.-Col. G. A. Kirkpatrick, M.P., president of the association; Lieut.-Col. the Hon. J. M. Gibson, 13th Batt.; Lieut.-Col. Ray, 96th Batt.; Lieut.-Col. Boswell, 90th Batt.; Lieut.-Col. Massey, 6th Fusiliers; Lieuts. Murray and Dundas, R.N.; Major Walsh, Ottawa; Delamere, Q.O.R.; Burland, 6th; Blaiklock, R.S.; Radiger, V.R.; Starke, V.R.; Hughes, 45th; Capt. Trench and Lieut. Becher, Duke of Wellington's Regiment; Capt. Ibbotson, 5th R.S.; Macdonald, Q.O.R.; Mutton, Q.O.R.; Sims, V.R.; Benedict, 90th; Dennistoun, 57th; and Bliss, O.F.B. A very pleasant evening was spent. The band of the G.G.F.G. afforded music.

Some very interesting tie shooting took place during the meeting. Sgt. Loggie, N.F.B., and Staff-Sergt. C. N. Mitchell shot off for third and fourth place in the Grand Aggregate, the former winning. Pte. J. C. Chamberlin, N.W.R.; Major S. Hughes, 45th; Staff-Sergt. J. S. Huntingdon, 56th; Corp. D. McNaughton, 51st, and Pte. A. Robertson, 77th, with 264 each, shot off for the last two places in the sixty, and Chamberlin and Robertson were successful. In the Governor-General's match Staff-Sergt. T. Mitchell, 10th R.G., and Capt. E. G. Zealand, 13th, shot off for the third prize, $100, and Mitchell won. Capt. J. A. Longworth, P.E.I.G.A., Staff-Sergt. C. N. Mitchell, 90th, Sergt. Hall, 79th, Lieut. Desbarats, Vics., and Staff-Sergt. Pink, 43rd, shot for the last two of the ten badges given in the Governor General's match, and the winners were Longworth and Mitchell.

The announcement that the sergeants of the West Riding Regiment (Regulars), would give an exhibition of the new physical exercise and bayonet exercise Thursday afternoon attracted a large crowd of spectators. The exhibition took place in front of the council tent, and the greatest interest was manifested. Among those present were the Hon. Sir A. P. Caron, Minister of Militia; Lieut.-Gen. Sir Fred. Middleton; Colonel Powell, Adjutant-General; Lieut.-Col. Kirkpatrick, M.P.; Lieut.-Col. Bacon, Secretary of the Association; Lieut.-Col. Macpherson, Treasurer; Capt. Trench and Lieut. Becher, West Riding Regiment; Lieuts. Murray and Dundas, of H.M.S. Bellerophon, many of the officers attending the competition, local militia officers and a large number of citizens. The squad was in command of the Sergt.-Major of the West Riding Regiment. The appearance of the sergeants was greeted with hearty applause, and the precision with which the various movements were gone through caused its frequent repetition. The physical drill was performed to the music of the Guards' band. The bayonet exercise was performed in full dress, first by word of command, and then without it. The exhibition was highly appreciated by the spectators, and proved one of the most interesting events of the competition.

Lieut.-Col. Kirkpatrick, M.P., President of the Association, wa "At Home" Thursday afternoon from half past four until six o'clock at the Council Tent, where the prizes won during the competition were on exhibition. Col. Kirkpatrick's callers, military and civil, were numerous. The ladies were received by Lady Middleton, in the absence of Mrs. Kirkpatrick in Quebec. Refreshments were served in the marquee. The band of the Governor-General's Foot Guards was present, and played a choice selection of music.

Capt. Trench, of the Duke of Wellington Regiment, reports having left a pair of binocular glasses, in a black leather case, at the 600 yards firing points. It is requested that the finder leave the same at the office of the MILITIA GAZETTE, to be forwarded to Capt. Trench.
