

MESSRS. W. A. MURRAY & Co., the well known retail dry goods and millinery firm of this city, have decided to close their establishment at two o'clock on Saturdays during the months of July and August.

It is said that the directors of the London Chemical Company, the works of which were destroyed by fire some weeks ago, are considering the advisability of rebuilding at Petrolea instead of at London.

THE town of Delhi has no bank within twelve miles which, says a correspondent of the British Canadian, is a source of much annoyance. He thinks that such an institution could be made to pay. One day last week upwards of $12,000 worth of local freight was shipped from that place.

ADVERTISERS in search of "smart boys" say that at this time of the year applicants are more numerous than at any other. They are also of a much better class than those who present themselves in the fall and winter months. This is always the case during school vacation, when many lads make a break to learn a trade or adopt a profession.
