WINNIPEG BOARD OF TRADE.

On the afternoon of Monday last, the Winnipeg Board of Trade held its annual meeting, which was well attended. The retiring president, Mr. D. K. Elliott, in his address to the members reviewing the year's work, dealt with many matters of public interest. The financial statement submitted by Mr. Strang showed a balance on hand of $1,398.54. It was decided to increase the salary of the secretary $200 per year. The board endorsed the movement of the Winnipeg letter-carriers to get, as the Toronto carriers are trying to get, an increase in wages. It was also decided that the board co-operate with St. John, N.B., and other cities in securing a reduction of postage on city drop letters.

When the meeting proceeded to the election of officers, William Georgeson was chosen president for the coming year, and Ald. John Russell, vice-president. Charles N. Bell and Andrew Strang were re-elected secretary and treasurer respectively by acclamation.

MONTREAL CHAMBRE DE COMMERCE.

A special meeting of this body was held on Wednesday of last week. The following officers were nominated for the ensuing year: President, L. E. Geoffrion; first vice-president, D. Masson; second vice-president, H. A. A. Brault; treasurer, L. J. A. Surveyer; secretary, Jos. Haynes. As there was no opposition to the gentlemen named, they were declared elected by acclamation. There were forty members nominated for the council of the Chambre, which is composed of twenty members, and the result of the election was to be announced on Wednesday, February 13th. We have not yet been advised of the names of those chosen.

J. A. SAYWARD, of Victoria, who owns lumber mills at Pilot Bay, will remove them to Nelson, so as to enable him to export to better advantage to Manitoba and the Territories.

In August, 1896, Holgate, Fielding & Co., druggists, became incorporated in Toronto, with $10,000 capital, paid up. Three years later the style was changed to Toronto Drug Company, Limited. It now appears that the business was not very well managed, indeed, it must have been a losing concern from start. They have assigned.

MESSRS. RUNIANS, GRAY & Co., departmental storekeepers, in London, have made some changes in their firm, and it now appears that they owe about $70,000. Not being able to meet their payments as they become due, creditors for sums over $500 have granted them an extension of time, payable in monthly instalments, with interest spread over a period of three years. Owing to Mr. Carrie's retirement from the firm, and the other members consenting to accept a less sum from the concern, their annual saving is estimated to amount to $2,400. This, it is hoped, will enable the firm to very much improve their position.
