

Contents

Introduction	v
Acknowledgements	ix
1945 to 1954	1
Summary	3
Chronology	4
Escott Reid: Hopes That Vanished at San Francisco	7
Charles Ritchie: San Francisco Conference—And Circus	10
Brock Chisholm: Dr. Chisholm's Prescription for Survival	14
John Humphrey: The Magna Carta of the World	18
Hugh Keenleyside: On the Fragile Bridge of Hope	24
Judge John Read: The "Minkies" and the Rule of Law	29
Andrew McNaughton: Northern Spies for the Security Council	35
1955 to 1964	39
Summary	41
Chronology	43
Paul Martin: Breaking the Deadlock on Membership	48
Lester B. Pearson: Taking Hotspur's Advice for Suez	53
E.L.M. Burns: Not So Far East of Suez	56
Adelaide Sinclair: Adelaide and the Cuban Hurricane	61
Stewart Sutton: Unwelcome Labels on the Blankets	65
J. King Gordon: ONUC—And What It Did for the Congo	69
Frank Shefrin: World Food Programme—High Marks in the Class .	73
Kalmen Kaplansky: The Workers Lead the Way with No. 111	77
Howard Green: Adding Ginger at Geneva	82
1965 to 1974	87
Summary	89
Chronology	91
George Ignatieff: What a Difference 20 Years Make!	96
William Epstein: Tlatelolco and the Golden Age of Détente	101
George Gordon-Lennox: Helping Refugees Return Home	107
Maurice Strong: The Environment: From Stockholm to Nairobi ..	111
George Davidson: Trying to Co-ordinate—In a Jungle	116
Alan Beesley: UNCLOS-3 As a Model for Negotiations	122
James Harrison: A Brighter Side of UNESCO—Science	127
Gordon Goundrey: Professor of Border Closures	130