

Table of Contents

Introduction	2
Exporting - good for business; Exporters - large, medium, small; Making the decision; How to begin; Importing goods into Canada
<hr/>
Mousetraps and markets	5
Something to sell; Somewhere to sell it
<hr/>
The market profile	7
General background; Market accessibility; Sales potential; Regulations; Terms of payment and currencies; Distribution
<hr/>
Prospecting for markets	9
Trade fairs; A foreign visit
<hr/>
Export experts	10
Your export team
<hr/>
Marketing information and assistance	10
Department of External Affairs	10
Geographic and functional branches in Ottawa; Info Export; New Exporters to Border States Program ; World Information Network for Exports; International Trade Data Bank
Other government departments	16
Department of Regional Industrial Expansion; Western Economic Diversification; Canadian Commercial Corporation; Statistics Canada
Provincial governments	19
Associations	20
Canadian Exporters' Association; Canadian Manufacturers' Association; Canadian Chamber of Commerce; Federation of Export Clubs Canada; The Council of Canadian Trading Houses; Canadian International Freight Forwarders Association, Inc.
<hr/>
Financial information and assistance	23
Department of External Affairs - Program for Export Market Development; Export Development Corporation; Canadian International Development Agency; Canadian Chartered Banks
<hr/>
Documentation	24
Canadian Chamber of Commerce
<hr/>
Canadian Trade Commissioners	26
<hr/>
Pointers	28
Communicating overseas; Telex, cable, facsimile; Overseas telephone; Advertising and promotional material; Scheduling your time
<hr/>
Appendix A- An export pricing sheet	30
Appendix B- A checklist for an overseas sales visit	31
Appendix C- A checklist for exhibiting overseas	33
Appendix D- Export jargon	36
Appendix E- Other helpful publications	38