

Article 28
Diplomatic and courtesy visas

The Government of Canada shall issue, on request, diplomatic visas to a Permanent Representative or a Representative of a Member State and, as may be appropriate, diplomatic or courtesy visas to officials of the Organization.

Article 29
Other entry facilities

The Government of Canada shall permit and facilitate the entry into Canada of:

- (a) representatives of the United Nations or its Agencies required to attend the headquarters premises on official business;
- (b) representatives of the press, or of radio, television, film, or other information agencies who have been accredited to the Organization, after consultation with the Government of Canada.

ABUSE OF PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

Article 30
Prevention of abuse

The Organization shall facilitate the proper administration of justice, secure the observance of police regulations, and prevent the occurrence of any abuse in connection with the privileges, immunities and facilities mentioned in this Agreement.

Article 31
Activities outside official functions

The Government of Canada may not require Permanent Representatives, Representatives of Member States or officials to leave the country on account of any activities performed by them in their official capacity. In the case of acts performed by a Permanent Representative or a Representative of a Member State or an official of the Organization that are incompatible with his status, the Government of Canada may require any such person to leave the country provided that:

- (a) Permanent and other Representatives of Member States and officials covered by Article 19 shall be required to leave the country only in accordance with the diplomatic procedure applicable to diplomatic agents accredited to Canada;
- (b) Officials covered by Article 20 shall be required to leave the country only with the approval of the Secretary of State for External Affairs after consultation with the Secretary General of the Organization; and, if expulsion proceedings are taken, the Secretary General of the Organization shall have the right to appear in any such proceedings on behalf of the person against whom they are instituted.
