

pursuant to a request under article 11 or 12; and

b. the expenses associated with conveying custodial or escorting officers.

2. If it becomes apparent that the execution of the request requires expenses of an extraordinary nature, the Parties shall consult to determine the terms and conditions under which the requested assistance can be provided.

Article 19

Consultations

1. The Parties shall consult promptly, at the request of either, concerning the interpretation and the application of this Treaty.

2. The Parties may enter into subsidiary arrangements and develop practical measures with a view to facilitate the implementation of this Treaty.

Article 20

Territorial application

1. As regards the Kingdom of the Netherlands, this Treaty shall apply to the territory of the Kingdom as a whole, subject to paragraph 2.

2. This Treaty shall not apply to assistance provided for in article 16 as between Canada and those parts of the Kingdom of the Netherlands outside Europe until the Kingdom of the Netherlands notifies Canada to the contrary.

Article 21

Entry into force

1. This Treaty shall enter into force on the first day of the second month after the date on which the Contracting States have notified each other that their legal requirements have been complied with.

2. This Treaty shall apply to any requests presented after its entry into force even if the relevant acts or omissions occurred before that date.
