

as at present or during the final examination period in the spring at the option of each Department interested. Any Department desiring University accommodation for mid-session examinations in courses completed at the end of the first half term must so apply to the Dean not later than the first day of January.

Interim Tests and Probation.

The Committee recommends that the following rule be adopted:-

There shall be two regular interim tests for all students of the first year, the first to be held near the middle of the month of November and the second during the week preceding the mid-winter vacation. There is no regular prescribed form of test, but the test shall be as near as possible the equivalent of a standard examination of one hour's duration. All students who in both these tests are below the required standard in more than one-third of their subjects shall be placed on probation for the rest of the academic year. During this period of probation students shall not be allowed to become members of a class or College athletic team or to hold office in any class or College society or to take part in any student activities other than serious studies. All students who are below the required standard in one-half or more of their subjects in both these tests shall be dropped from the University for that year and shall not be allowed to re-enter the University except with the consent of the Faculty.

Honour Courses.

The Committee recommends that the following rules be adopted in addition to and in so far as they vary the rules in
