

I am sorry to take up so much of your valuable space, but it is all-important in the interests of the reunion of divided Christendom that this woolly way of thinking about the Church should be expunged from men's minds as an utterly unscriptural and irrational idea.

---

NOTE BY THE PUBLISHERS.

---

The above Letters are published with the consent of the writers duly obtained. Dr. Langtry informs us that there are still in the hands of the Mail two letters in reply to Dr. MacLaren unpublished; but rather than Dr. MacLaren's article and letters should go forth without any of his replies, he prefers to give the three already published.