HORSES SELLING WELL

AT MAHER'S EXCHANGE.

Yesterday's auction sale at the horse exchange was exceptionally strong for the midweek sale. The offering was fairly large and the quality was up to the average. Prices were somewhat lower for high-class stock, owing to the fact that shipments have been so large during the last few weeks. Some representative buyers were: E. C. Wakefield shipped four extra fine grays to North Bay, M. T. Stafford, Renfrew, Ont.; Wm. Harris Co., W. R. Fry, St. Catharines; John Gerotto, Belleville; Thompson Bros., Belleville; Andrews Broad Co., A. Taylor, J. Scott, John Maloney, Abel Boyd, J. McKay, Bert V. Weese, R. Johnston, J. J. Walsh, H. H. Hoppet, J. Coster & Son.

CORNBROOM WINS STAKE AT OTTAWA

Connaught Park Favorites Have Fair Day, Tho Long Shots Land a Couple.

OTTAWA, June 19.—Favorites had another fair day at Connaught Park, but the usual surprises were forthcoming, when two 12 to 1 shots came home with the money. Fortunately for the bookies they went to the post with very little money on them.

The feature of the day, the Lumbermen's Stake, resulted in an easy victory for Collin Campbell's Corn Broom. Byron de Kalb, at 12 to 1, beat out a shifty bunch in the fifth this being the first start of the winner. Gerrard won his race in an easy fashion. Havrock and Fat Rutledge made shows of their fields in the first and second respectively. Bat Masterson, another favorite, rewarded his followers in the fourth. Prince Chap, which closed as favorite, was an also ran in the seventh. Marsand winning with Tommie Thompson second and Tom Savers third.
