BRAMPTON'S MAYOR IS THOMAS MARA

Local Option Well Endorsed—Long Drawn Battle Finally Concluded.

OTHER ELECTION NEWS

Farmers in Albion, Caledon and Adjacent Townships Want Hydro Power.

The local option vote yesterday was one of the surprises of the province. After having no license for four years the voters of the town of Brampton, Ontario, decided to have a license for the same.

A largely signed petition from the farmers in the Townships of Albion, Caledon, Chinguacousy and Toronto Gore has been forwarded to the Provincial Hydro-Electric Commission, asking for an estimate to have this commodity at their doors.

Ward	For	Against
East Ward	140	98
West Ward	160	73
North Ward	122	61
South Ward	145	102
Total	567	334

Majority Contest.
The contest for the majority of Brampton was second in interest to the local option campaign. J. S. Beck, who brought the hydro-electric system in town to its present state of perfection, and Thomas Mara, were the contestants. Mr. Mara was the winner by 21 of a majority.

School Trustees.
For school trustees Wm. Findley defeated James Magill in the west ward by 129 to 82. The other wards went by acclamation—James Hamesworth in the east, M. G. Chantler in the north, and C. M. McCollum in the south.

Ex-Mayor Duggan. On retiring after two years' service, entertained the members of last year's council, and the members of the hydro-electric and water commission.

YORK TOWNSHIP COUNCIL MEETING

Date Set for Nomination of Candidate for Third Deputy Reeve.

SOME COMMUNICATIONS

Mrs. Hugh Hustie Claims Damages for Fall on Broken Sidewalk.

A nomination meeting for candidates to fill the vacancy of third deputy reeve in the York Township Council will be held on Jan. 15 in the council chamber, and unless someone is chosen by acclamation an election will take place on Jan. 22.

There was a large batch of communications, notably a letter from R. R. Waddell, acting for Mrs. Hugh Hustie and her infant daughter, in a claim for injuries sustained by them when Mrs. Hustie tripped and fell on broken sidewalk on Thompson street, Swansea.

The city assessment commission, headed by Mr. J. J. Macdonald, has received the opinion of the city regarding the advisability of fixing a tax for the acceptance of plans of building a sewer.

Applications were received from School Sections Nos. 13 and 15 for the appointment of trustees.

Reeve Syme expressed the opinion that this was something the trustees might do themselves, but promised to go into the matter.

VALVES INSTALLED ON ANNETTE ST.

Waterworks Department is at Work in Ward Seven—Lodge Function.

Rev. Edward Morley, rector of St. Paul's Church, Burnhamthorpe, addressed the Anglican Young People's Association at St. John's, Dundas street, last evening.

At a recent meeting, at which Mr. Barker was endorsed by a good majority, the waterworks department is completing the construction of a series of high-pressure valves along Annette street, one at the intersection of each cross street.

The children of Annette Street School are chafing over the delay of the city officials in flooding their rink on Clendinning avenue.

other heavier than the usual charges made by the workmen. The shocks resulting from these charges amounted to nothing, and the party went away satisfied that there was nothing for the residents to make a fuss about.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Hanna, the secretary of the North Riverdale Ratepayers' Association, went to the city council and stated the people's grievances in this respect. A resolution was passed to the effect that the affair be looked into.

MARKHAM TOWNSHIP
Jonathan Nigh was re-elected reeve of Markham Township yesterday by a majority of 213, and the following were elected to the council: Summerrell, Frank Reesor and Alexander Mitchell. Deputy Reeve Padgett was re-elected by acclamation last week.

CORNWALL J. H. 5.—(Special.)
In the municipal elections here today D. J. Gillies was elected mayor by acclamation. For reeve Richard Larmer polled 697 and J. E. Chevrier 698, giving Mr. Larmer a majority of 59. Mark Hermetstein was elected deputy reeve by acclamation.

At Work Again.
Work at the Don valley paper mill will be resumed today after having been closed down for a little over a week. As the work is carried on every alternate Saturday night in the parish hall, Paper Avenue, two hours recently has been taken up for repairs. Besides the repairs a new motor is being installed, which will facilitate work considerably, previous to this steam being the only power used.
