THE REMEDIAL ORDER.

Size—These days when the Manitoha School question and the remedial order of the Governor at Council, in other words the Dominion Cabinet, occupy the attention of all who are interested either in politics or in the welfare of the country and the continuation of the country and the continuation of the country and the continuation of the country in the constant of the Johnson of the Hard of the Johnson of the Hard of the Johnson of the Johnso erfect to belog that question with the breath of sophistry and the clouds of racial and creddt hate.

It was an ill day for Canada when the merchantable commodity used very largely in our elections and known by the misnomer of "Equal Rights" was imported to our shaces, that there was mosted customs duty upon it that would render its importation prohibitive. The only remedy we have is to teach the people, Canadians all, that no rights but equal rights have existed in our country but for a very short time, and that the fertile soil of the intelligence of her people, well tilled as it is, will refuse to receive or freutify the weeds of sectarian animosities or party hate, call them by whatever missioner that dishonest pedlar or importer may find the manner of the proposed of a sectarian animosities or party hate, call them by whatever missioner that dishonest pedlar or importer may find unexton whether Separato schools an Manitoba are boundied to the State is not in issue. This was settlicd long ago either by their oxistence at the time of the Union or by legislation of the Prevince of Manitoba, and for the purpose of arriving at a just conclusion as to the propriety or necessity of the remedial order, the atternative lass no weight in argument. I have been been defined and conducted moperly is "obiter argumentum;" house the proper inspectors, and perhaps the same result might be made patent as it was in Outario when on a competitive examination of chosen pupils from the Public and Separato school pupils bere away the palm of merit. May it always be our motto, as it is, that (and without effront-rry) of oid Upper Canada College, "Palman qui meruit forat." Will our would-be-thought-protectors give their Catholic fellow citizens ercoilt for having the same natural Heaven born and parental fellows this even they accord to barbarians. Would the barbarian send his son into battle unarmed or with a cleft shield, or into a race with in fellow boys without due preparation will these persons give us credit for having the s

2. If so, what right had this minority to appeal to the Governor in Council for a remedial order?

to appeal to the Governor in Council for a remedial order?

8. What was the duty of the Governor in Council on finding that such a grievance existed?

We must approach these queries not as Catholics or Protestants, but as fair minded men ready to give an impartial verdict according to the ovidence and regardless of the consequences that may ensue.

regardless of the consequences that may onsue.

Some believe that the Province of Manitobe is being bullied by the big Federal power at Ottawa and raise the rey "hands off Manitobe," while others believe that an intelerant majority in Manitobe are bullying and illtreating a small law abiding and intelligent minority, and in the spirit of fair play send back the answer "hands off Manitoba." Let us then approach the issue with the old obstile cary of England, "God defout the right."

That of the Dominion of Canada as an Chart of the Dominion of Canada as an Constitutional rights, see. 98; the Manitoba Act 82 and 83 vic. see. 29, and Manitoba will decide all these points.

The question No. 1 is answered in the affirmative by the judgment of the Privy Council in the case of Brophy wa. Attornoy-General of Manitoba, reported in vol. 1, Privy Council Appeal Cases, 1805, page 292, and by the decision of the Governor-General in Council, which followed the finding of the Privy Council and lastly by the admission of Mr. McCarthy in his argument before the Governor in Council when he says: "I am not going to say there is not a griow ance. 1 am precluded from that by the judgment."

As to question No. 2 it must also be a privaled in the council of the production of the prival of the prival of the production of the production of the prival of the prival am interioring to say there is not a griovance. I am precluded from that by the judgment.

As to question No. 2 it must also be answered in the affirmative for these surveyed in the affirmative for the link. A. Act and the Manitoba Act cited almost identical in intent where a grievance does exist; as where the Provincial Legislature while acting "intra vires" have passed an act which not only trenches upon the rights of the minority in educational matters, but infringes upon those rights, whether those rights existed at the time of the union with Manitoba or were afterwards conferred, as by stat. 32 and 33 Manitoba, above cited, an appeal lies to the Governor-General in Council. A question here arises: should the Governor-General in Council. A question here arises: should the Governor-General in Council. A question here arises: should the Governor-General in Council. A question here arises: should the Governor-General in Council. A question here were the careful for the minority when entering into the compact of Confederation. They pointed out dangers ahead should the rights of the minority in educational matters be handed over unreservedly to a present or future majority without any appeal. And when these provinces were also fenced in and guarded. These Quobec men went future to a described for the minority a representation in the Parlicuent of the Province, survey loss of the minority a representation in the Parlicuent of the Province, survey loss of the minority a representation in the Parlicuent of the Province, survey loss of the minority a representation in the Parlicuent of the Province survey loss of the minority a representation in the Parlicuent of the Provinces were obserted in the Council of the minority a representation in the Parlicuent of the Provinces were loss of the caution overlooked by those who were quarding the rights of minorities in other Provinces.

So far questions 1 and 2 are disposed of in the following manner:

In answer to No. 1—A. The minority in Mauitoba had a grievance.

In answer to No. 2—A. They had a right to appeal to the Governor in Council.

right to appeal to the Governor in Council.

The two former being decided in the affirmative, the third can be easily answered in the affirmative also.

It was the duty of the Governor General in Council (as said before the Dominion Cabinet) to proceed to right that grievance and to issue the Remedial Order as provided by the Acts above quoted, and he (or they) would have been acting unconstitutionally had they hesitated in doing so. Had the local Legislature in Quebec interfered with the rights vested in the minority by the Constitution of Canada, would fault be found had a remedial order been issued? Would not those who now cry out with affected sincerity "hands off Manitoba," cry out "hands off Quebec," and Justiy so, too.

Should Manitoba refuse to right the grievance, what then? Shall we send another North West expedition to coerce her? No! the two Acts above cited provide a remedy. She forgets her powers of making restitution for a wrong done, and by her rofusal vests the power of doing what is just and proper in the Dominion Parliament.

How the Dominion Parliament have performed their duty in reforming abuses will come before the elections after the next seasion of Parliament, which will be in January, and it is most important, in fact importative, that the electors one and all should understand the issues before them and not be misuses before them and not be misused to cur views on the subject, and for a more detailed resume of the arguments adduced.

We have a great deal of pleasure in commending to those who are interested a brochure from the pen of Edward Meek, Barrister, of Toronto, which should be in the possession of every citizen. It is entitled—"The Legal and Constitutional Aspects of the Manitoba School Question.

The questions have been treated most learnedly, to unically and clearly by Dr. Bournet, Hon. W. R. Scott, Mr. Frank Anglin and others, but these cassayists (all of them clored gentlemen) have written to certain members of the community who have been in the habit of listening to legal arguments enveloped in technical terms, and although they have performed their parts with great ability acumen and a pleasing and wonderful diaplay of legal knowledge and research; and with a unanimity of conclusion which is not wonderful to those who perhaps through their meriorious labors have skriven to understand the questions which so largely now coursy the public mind, they might aptly have chosen for the motion of their different cessays, "Doctis non indooris sortbo."

Mr Meek's brochare deals with the whole in 'ter at issue and while his dissertation is learned, terse, scholarly and logical, it is conveyed in language so clear, into concerd in taching mage so clear, into concerd in the Mr. Meek might will have inscribed as his motto "Doctris inducting as action."
