

BOOKS ON MISSION LANDS.

WOMEN OF THE ORIENT. An Account of the Religious, Intellectual, and Social Condition of Women in Japan, China, India, Egypt, Syria, and Turkey.

BY ROSS C. HOUGHTON, A. M.

12mo. Cloth. 496 pages. Illustrated. $1.20.

While my purpose has been to write a book which shall be of interest to the general reader, I trust the following pages will be of especial value to those Christian ladies of America whose sympathies and efforts are enlisted in the work of elevating Oriental women through the power of Christian education.—Extract from Author's Preface.

CHINA AND JAPAN. A Record of Observations made during a Residence of Several Years in China, and a Tour of Official Visitation to the Missions of Both Countries.

BY I. W. WILEY, D. D.,

Late one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

12mo. Cloth. 548 pages. Illustrated. 90 cents.

If the book will serve to quicken the zeal of Christians in the work of evangelizing these great empires, and will have some influence in getting the people of America to understand better both our political and Christian relations toward these neighbors, whose empires are only separated from our western borders by a steam-ferry, the writer will be compensated for all his labor in giving these facts to the public.—Extract from Preface.

INDIA AND BRITISH BURMAH. A Hand-book.

BY W. E. ROBBINS, MISSIONARY.

16mo. Cloth. 285 pages. Illustrated. 60 cents.

This is not a guide-book for travelers, but an attempt to answer in as few words as possible the many questions concerning India which have been asked the author during his ten years of labor in this country, and to put the result in such a small and cheap form as to be accessible to the multitudes whose interest in this great empire is constantly increasing.—Preface.
