We take pleasure in placing the work before American readers in a more convenient form than that of its first publication, and trust that it will be extensively perused by young and old throughout our land. No nation ought to be better acquainted than ours with the history of the Popes, and the system of religion of which they are acknowledged heads; for none has more to fear from the movements of Romanists.

There is no work extant, to our knowledge, that covers the same ground. It gives in compendious form the history of the Papacy from its very beginning down to the pontificate of Pius IX.—a kind of information which the American people stand much in need of just now.—Methodist Quarterly Review.

The work is well adapted to popular reading, and supplies a previous lack in the current literature of the age.—Christian Witness.
