BYE-LAW V.

Of the Corporation.

Sec. 1.—All meetings of the Corporation shall be called by the Secretary by direction of the President by giving two days' notice, except in cases of emergency.

Sec. 2.—It shall be the duty of the Corporation to make and renew all contracts within its cognizance, in such a manner as may be deemed proper and conducive to the interest of the Congregation.

Sec. 3.—The Corporation shall meet at least every six months for the transaction of business, and shall also meet at least one week before the annual meeting for the purpose of auditing the Treasurers books and preparing a report to be submitted to the general body.

Sec. 4.—It shall be the duty of the Corporation to enforce by law the payment of all monies due to them arising in any manner whatsoever.

Sec. 5.—The Corporation shall be empowered to levy a special tax upon all seat-holders, to provide for any deficiency or emergent or contingent outlay for which the funds of the Corporation shall not be sufficient; such tax to be levied pro rata amongst the seat-holders and to become due and payable within one week from its adoption.
