OBJECT TO ASSESSMENT

For some reason or other the assessment of two 50-foot lots in Bay-street, south of Wellington, which have not been built on since the fire, was raised from $600 to $750 per foot. The matter was brought to the attention of the court of revision yesterday by the Baldwin estate, the owners, with the result that $100 was cut from the assument.

The Singer Sewing Machine Company objected to an assessment on their property of 60 per cent., the manufacturers' rate, on the ground that they were retailers and should only be assessed 25 per cent. Judgment was reserved in the case.

The Ontario Club appeared against the figure of $65,000 being put on the old Standard Bank building at Wellington and Jordan, which the club is making into a club building. The assessor said as the inside of the walls had been torn out it should be reduced to $45,000. The representatives of the club thought the walls were worth only $15,000. The assessor will meet the club officials to-day and try to make a settlement.
