clement weather reduced the gate receipts and took the brilliancy off the event that its promoters had hoped for.

But that was pleasing to note grains and fruit was filled and not a dollar of money offered in the prize list was unawarded. Another gritifying event that its promoters had hoped for. But that was not the worst of it. The honorable body which the Toronto Township Agricultural Society has elected to direct the success of Streets-ville Fair, bore a personal grudge against the rain. They had planned to present themselves on the grounds in silk hats and frock coats, and this little stunt had to be called off.

Some time ago, at a meeting of the executive the harmy idea of coming out the stunt had to be called off.

North Toronto

Is there an incendiarist at work in North Toronto? The people of the town suspect as much and Chief of Police McIntosh says he feels confident that there is a rogue behind the recent fires whose origin can in no other way be explained. Lately two barns and a monster haystack have been burned to the ground, causing thousands of dol-lars' loss, and there has been so much mystery connected with each that suspicion is naturally aroused thruout the neighborhood. Chief McIntosh stated to The World yesterday that he believes he is now on the track of the guilty party, and is only waiting for nt evidence to warrant his taking definite action. When on Aug. 16 a stack of hay. containing 200 tons, mysteriously went up and also for stiffness of joints and in flame on the Lawrence Park estate, muscles. I suffered long and acutely incurring a heavy loss upon John At-kinson of Bedford Park, the owner, ment after another in vain. I also incendiarism was suggested. Two took medicines internally, but it reevening was spent in fires, causing the loss of a barn in mained for Zam-Buk to effect a cure, in games and music. each case, which occurred last week, came as a reminder of the mystery hovering over the hay fire in August and moved the local police to commence a quiet investigation. The blaze that took the Dovercourt Land Company's barn to the ground and with it a season's crop of hay, belonging to Mr. Anderson, on Monday night of last week, incurred a loss of over $5000. Considerable damage also resulted from fire which broke out in the barn of R. W. E. Burnaby last Saturday night. The cause in each case is yet unknown but Chief McIntosh thinks he may locate it definitely within a few days, when the hand that set the flame will and himself in the custody of the po What motive could be held out the firing of these valuable proper ties is beyond comprehension, and i is believed the incendiaries, if such there be, when apprehended will be found to be suffering from this peculiar form of mania. Three $10,000 houses have been com menced near Yonge street on the north side of Alexandra boulevard, Alexandra Gardens, this week.

MIMCIO

The diamond jubilee of the ministry of Rev. Canon Tremayne, pastor Christ Church, Mimico, was celebrated in the church last night. The service was conducted by Bishop Sweeny, who delivered a special sermon on "The Work of the Ministry." n which he referred in glowing terms to the faithful service of Canon Tremayne during his 61 years in the ministry. The canon, he declared, had long been his personal and much esteemed friend. Special prayers were offered for the welfare of the elderly
