RETURNED MEN FIND HOME FROM HOME AT S. A. MILITARY HOSTEL

Of the 40 returned soldiers who arrived in London Wednesday evening, 31 spent the night at the Salvation Army Military Hostel. This is taken to show that this institution is playing an important part in attending to the needs of the returned men who have no home in this city or who have to remain in the city over night before leaving for home.

Adjutant John Sharp, the manager of the Hostel, meets every train which brings returned soldiers to the city. If a soldier happens to be "broke," he is urged to come anyway. Meals are provided at all hours of the day and night, and the beds are almost all filled every night. The bedclothing is laundered every morning, so that the beds are always clean and tidy. The rates are far cheaper than in any hotel or boarding-house in the city.

All soldiers and sailors, whether they are returned men or not, are heartily welcome, and the staff of the hostel are always ready to lend a helping hand.
